SEEDS FROM THE SOWER

Michael A. Guido, D.D.
Metter, Georgia

“You know, Larry,” he began in a soft voice, “I’m troubled by the fact that all of the horrible things I see on TV or hear over the radio when I travel don’t bother me as much as they once did. What’s happening to me?” he asked.

We all wonder, at one time or another, how a group of people can watch a person being beaten or robbed, or fall ill in a crowded mall or on busy street corner, and no one responds. We see the ravages of war, watch people die on a battlefield, see disabled veterans trying to adjust to life with artificial limbs and seem to accept it as “normal” in today’s culture. It seems as though the pain and suffering of others matter little to anyone except the one enduring the hardships.

The Psalmist who wrote Psalm 94 was troubled by the evil in the world. He looked around and saw people oppressed. He was aware of calloused leaders whose only concern was for themselves. He was troubled by the lack of concern for widows and children and asked, “God, if You created ears for people to hear, and eyes for people to see, why don’t You hear the cries and see the suffering of those whom You created?” Do something God!

So, has God, like us, become insensitive to the needs of people and the condition of the world? Does He not care about what is happening to His creation? Indeed He does.

“He will repay them and destroy them for their wickedness,” says the Psalmist. But until He does, we are responsible to bring His hope and healing to the suffering.

TRYING TO RUN THE CHURCH

My brother-in-law said that he didnt go to this church because of this particular family that he said was running the church. That was just another one of his excuses, because he didnt go to church anywhere. This particular family did a lot in the church and gave a lot of money. Thank God for this family, but oh how cruel we can be toward these zealous workers in the church. Some folk dont want to do nothing and dont want nobody else to do nothing. The church is full of willing workers. Those that are willing to work and those that are willing to let them work and usually the ones that do nothing are the ones that criticize the others. About ten percent of most congregations are the ones that do the bulk of the church work and they are the ones that get blamed for trying to run the church. Well, sometimes if they didnt do it, then it wouldnt get done. Amen!

Nowadays, since some congregations are bigger and theres more money, they pay most of the church workers a salary. Full time staff should be paid, but this notion that everyone should be paid for everything they do is just part of this modern-day mentality. The prosperity syndrome I call it. Even children will tell you quickly that they will do so and so if you pay them. One fellow told me that all he had to do was to play the piano for this church on Sunday morning and they paid him $150.00. But in the church, we need to be ready to serve the Lord with all our heart and let God bless us and His blessings are not always in money. Amen!

So, if you are a zealous church worker then you can expect to catch a lot of flack, but be not weary in well doing. You must stay focused. You are doing it for God; not man. The biggest complaint from those that do little or nothing is that these get something done for God church workers want to do too much. They want to keep something going all the time that cost too much money and there is some warrant in that. We can overdo it sometimes and waste money that God put us as stewards over.

Down through the years because I was the preachers son, I became overzealous, but I didnt feel like I was trying to run the church as I was accused of. My dad pastored small churches and he had a big family, so naturally we got labeled as a family church and we were accused of trying to dominate the church. How sad! All I wanted to do was to work for God. Thank God the Lord my shepherd knew that I needed a larger pasture to graze in. In other words God called me to move out into the highways and hedges, the prisons and places where folks were sick and hurting and needed ministering to.

We need to work for God no matter what folks say, but sometimes we need to back off and let others have a go at it. Like I told my brother-in-law, Go get involved and maybe they will let you help run the church. Dont over do it and take your criticism with a grain of salt as we say. I had rather make it to heaven with criticism than I had to go to hell with a lot of praise. Amen! But folks shouldn't constantly criticize these overzealous workers, because I had rather have them do too much than to have those that do nothing. If we do nothing then the church will die, but let us never forget that its not about programs, but about winning lost souls. Also, I might add, that you can do a lot in the church and still not really have a heart for God. A heart for lost souls. Keep up the good work! I will say Amen to that!
