

Citizens Compliments

Queen City Police Department strives to offer the best service possible to our citizens and visitors.

Our officers are trained to adhere to the latest laws and rules set forth by the City, State and Federal guidelines.

Any violation of those laws or rules may be addressed by a Complaint being filed with the department.

Compliments may be verbal or in writing.

To file a complaint, see the separate poster for information regarding citizens' rights as well as peace officer's rights and laws in accordance with the Texas Occupation Code.

To make a compliment on the Department or an Officer, please contact the Chief of Police, Robert W. McGee at 903-796-7986 ext. 102 8am to 5pm, by email at robert.mcgee@qcpdtx.org, or by regular mail being addressed to:

Queen City Police Department

Attention: Chief of Police

Robert W. McGee

P.O.BOX 301

QUEEN CITY, TEXAS 75572