

THE BLUE AND GOLD BRIEF

2ND EDITION

Dear Connecticut FBLA members,

In this edition, you'll find updates on our recent events, highlights of our members who attended the Fall State and National Leadership Conferences, and some information on your state officers and council members.

Thank you for your commitment to FBLA and I eagerly await to see everyone again!

Sincerely,
Mya Blanco

Connecticut FBLA State President

STATE OFFICER SATURDAYS

On October 14th, Connecticut FBLA hosted its first State Officer Saturday of the year with President Mya. These events are done through Instagram Live for officers to answer any questions members might have. The content is also posted on the CT FBLA YouTube (Instagram LinkTree) for members to access and revisit.

All upcoming State Officer Saturdays will be posted a week in advance.

FALL STATE LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE

This year's fall conference was a dynamic gathering where officers eagerly shared insights on various topics. The event featured inspiring guest speakers from Quinnipiac University who discussed the valuable lessons learned from failure. Attendees engaged in lively discussions and built connections with like-minded individuals. Overall, the conference celebrated leadership, learning, and collaboration which really set the tone for the upcoming Spring Leadership Conference on Tuesday March 12, 2024.

FALL NATIONAL LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE

Attendees immersed themselves in insightful workshops and gained valuable perspectives from a range of guest speakers. The conference also provided a fun and social component with the FBLA David Busters night. Members also got to meet National Officers and their council! The combination of educational sessions and engaging activities made the conference a well-rounded experience for Connecticut FBLA chapters.

FBLA SPIRIT DAY

Chapters joined forces for FBLA Spirit Day, showcasing their unity by dressing in blue and gold or sporting their official FBLA shirts. This visual display not only celebrated individual and collective commitment but also highlighted the shared passion for leadership, business, and community engagement within the FBLA community.
