BRAIN INJURY
ASSOCIATION
OF SOUTH CAROLINA

A support and advocacy group through Brain Injury Association of South Carolina for young adults who have been impacted by brain injury

BrainStorm is a group for young adults (ages 15-29) who are striving to advocate, educate, and create a safe space for individuals that have been affected by concussions, traumatic brain injuries, or acquired brain injuries in any capacity.

This group strives to bring visibility to this 'invisible' injury through education, advocacy, open-communication, and support.

WHO IS THIS GROUP FOR:

- This is a group is open to survivors, family, friends, and advocates of brain injury who are between the ages 15–29
 - Someone who has a brain injury that impacts their life in at least one way on a regular basis
 - Traumatic Brain Injury (TBI)
 - Concussion
 - Someone whose parent, neighbor, sibling, friend, or significant other is living with a brain injury

WHAT ARE THESE MEETINGS:

- Join Facilitator, Young Adult, and Brain Injury Survivor Jasmine Norris as she helps you:
 - Find community and peer support – you are not alone in your experience with brain injury!
 - Educate anyone and everyone in your life through advocacy

WHERE DO WE MEET:

- Virtual Meetings will be held on Zoom the 3rd Wednesday of every month from 6:30 – 8 pm EST
