

George Soros & Open Society Foundation: Money Talks
By Kris Lemon

- . Earthjustice: Seeks to place severe restrictions on how U.S. land and waterways may be used. Opposes most mining and logging initiatives, commercial fishing businesses, and the use of motorized vehicles in undeveloped areas.
- . Economic Policy Institute: Believes that “government must play an active role in protecting the economically vulnerable, ensuring equal opportunity, and improving the well-being of all Americans.”
- . Electronic Privacy Information Center: It’s been a harsh critic of the USA Patriot Act and has joined the ACLU in litigating two cases calling for the FBI “to publicly release or account for thousands of pages of information about the government’s use of Patriot Act powers.”
- . Ella Baker Center for Human Rights: Co-founded by revolutionary communist/CNN Journalist Van Jones, this anti-poverty organization claims that “decades of disinvestment in our cities,” have “led to despair and homelessness.”
- . EMILY’s List: Political Network raises money for Democratic female political candidates who support unrestricted access to taxpayers-funded abortion-on-demand.
- . Energy Action Coalition: Describes itself as “a coalition of 50 youth-led environmental and social justice groups working together to build the youth clean energy and climate movement.” For EAC, this means “dismantling oppression” according to its principles of environmental justice.
- . Equal Justice USA: Claims that America’s criminal justice system is plagued by “significant race and class biases,” and thus seeks to promote major reforms.
- . Fair Immigration Reform Movement: Open Borders arm of the Center for Community Change.
- . Faithful America: Promotes the redistribution of wealth, and end to enhanced interrogation procedures vis a vis prisoners-of-war, the enactment of policies to combat global warming, and the creation of a government-run health care system.
- . Families USA: Washington-based health-care advocacy group favors ever-increasing government control of the American healthcare system.
- . Feminist Majority: Characterizing the U.S. as an inherently sexist nation, this group focuses on “advancing the legal, social and political equality of women with men, countering the backlash to women’s advancement, and recruiting and training young feminists to encourage future leadership for the feminist movement in the U.S.”

. Four Freedoms Fund: Designed to serve as conduit through which large foundations could fund state-based open borders organizations more flexibly and quickly.

. Free Exchange on Campus: Created solely to oppose the efforts of one individual, David Horowitz, and his campaign to have universities adopt an “Academic Bill of Rights,” as well as to denounce Horowitz’s 2006 book The Professors. Member organizations of FEC include Campus Progress; American Association of University Professors; ACLU etc...

. Free Press: “Media Reform” organization has worked closely with many notable leftists and such organizations as Media Matters for America, Air America Radio, Global Exchange, Code Pink, Fairness and Accuracy in Reporting, the Revolutionary Communist Party, Mother Jones magazine, and Pacifica Radio.

. Funding Exchange: Dedicated to the concept of philanthropy as a vehicle for social change, this organization pairs leftist donors and to bringing about their own version of “progressive” change and social justice. Many of these grantees assume that American society is rife with racism, discrimination, exploitation, and inequity and needs to be overhauled via sustained education, activism, and social agitation.

. Gamaliel Foundation: Modeling its tactics on those of the radical 60’s activist Saul Alinsky, it takes a strong stand against current homeland security measures and immigration restriction. (Obama is/was apart of this)

. Gisha: Center for the Legal Protection of Freedom of Movement: This anti-Israel organization seeks to help Palestinians “exercise their right to freedom of movement.”

. Global Centre for the Responsibility to Protect: Contends that when a state proves either unable or unwilling to protect civilians from mass atrocities occurring within its borders, it is the responsibility of the international community to intervene peacefully if possible, but with military force if necessary.

. Global Exchange: Established in 1988 by pro-Castro radical Medea Benjamin, this group consistently condemns America’s foreign policy, business practices, and domestic life. Following 9/11 terrorist attacks, Global Exchange advised Americans to examine “the root causes of resentment against the U.S. in the Arab world, from our dependence on Middle Eastern oil to our biased policy towards Israel.”

. Grantmakers Without Borders: It tends to be very supportive of leftist environmental, anti-war, and civil rights group. It is also generally hostile to capitalism, which it deems one of the chief “political, economic, and social systems” that give rise to a host of “social ills.”

. Green For All: Another group created by Van Jones to lobby for federal climate, energy, and economic policy initiatives.

. Health Care for America Now: Supports a “single payer” model where the federal government would be in charge of financing and administering the entire U.S. healthcare system.

. Human Rights Campaign: It’s the largest “LGBT” lobbying group in the U.S. HRC supports political candidates and legislation that will advance the LGBT agenda. HRC has most vigorously championed HIV/AIDS-related legislation, “hate crime” laws, the abrogation of the military’s “Don’t Ask, Don’t Tell” policy, and the legalization of gay marriage.

. Human Rights First: Supports open borders and the rights of illegal aliens; charges that the Patriot Act severely erodes Americans’ civil liberties; has filed amicus curiae briefs on behalf of terror suspect Jose Padilla; and deplores the Guantanamo Bay detention facilities.

. Human Rights Watch: Directs a disproportionate share of its criticism at the U.S. and Israel. Opposes the death penalty in all cases, and supports open borders and amnesty for illegal aliens.
