

BECOME AN ENTREPLEIO LEADERSHIP SYNTAX PRACTITIONER

Help leaders understand how they show up, the impact they have and what they can do differently.

All organisations need leaders who can inspire and release individual and collective potential. Yet most of us are unaware of the behavioural patterns we run, how, why and where they show up, and the impact those patterns can have on ourselves and others. Entrepleio Leadership Syntax helps make those patterns visible.

FROM INSIGHT TO MEANINGFUL EXPLORATION

The Entrepleio Leadership Psychometric creates detailed behavioural insight—the starting point for a powerful exploration with a client. A report alone isn't enough. As a trained Practitioner, you learn to interpret the insight, understand the connections within it and facilitate a broad, wide-ranging exploration of the client's behavioural patterns.

DON'T JUST EXPLAIN THE REPORT. HELP THE CLIENT EXPLORE IT.

Help clients explore how they show up, understand their impact and consider what they might choose to do differently.

“The Practitioner Training programme was thorough, practical and highly effective in turning a wealth of valuable data and insights into meaningful real-world application and thought-provoking conversations. Working alongside other practitioners brought the tool to life, while exploring our own profiles first provided invaluable insight into both the coaching process and the experience of receiving the content. This is an impressive tool that creates a genuinely deep and meaningful experience for those on the receiving end. The outstanding trainers elevated the experience even further, with their generosity, expertise and ongoing support truly second to none.
