 - (d) Junk vehicles stored on the premises of a commercial repair establishment for not more than thirty (30) days.
2. The storage upon any property or building materials unless there is in force a valid building permit issued by the Village of Mesick for construction.
 3. The existence of any structure or damaged part of a structure which, because of fire, wind or other natural causes or physical deterioration, is no longer habitable nor useful for any other purpose for which it was intended.
 4. The existence of any vacant building, garage or outbuilding unless such buildings are kept secured or neatly boarded up and protected to prevent any entrance by vandals.
 5. The existence of any incomplete structure unless that structure is in the course of construction in accordance with a valid building permit.

Section 5. Nuisance:

Any parking, storage, accumulation, placement or operation in violation of the provisions of this Ordinance are hereby declared to be a public nuisance which may be enjoined pursuant to the governing law or for which the violator may be subjected to a suit for civil damages, as well as the fines and penalties herein provided.

Section 6. Enforcement:

The Ordinance shall be enforced by the Village of Mesick as provided in state law.

The owner, if possible, and the occupant of any property upon which any of the causes of blight or blighting factors set forth in Section 4 above is found to exist shall be notified in writing to remove or eliminate such causes of blight or blighting factors from such property within ten (10) days after service of this notice to said owner or occupant.

Failure to comply with such notice within the time allowed said owner or occupant shall constitute a violation of the Ordinance. Failure to comply with such notice shall be punishable as described in

Section 7. Penalties:

Any person, firm or corporation violating any of the provisions of this Ordinance shall be subject to a fine of not more than One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) or imprisonment in the County Jail for a period not to exceed ninety (90) days, or both. Each day that the violation continues to exist shall constitute a separate violation of this Ordinance.

In addition to the imposition of the foregoing fines, penalties and other legal remedies, the Sheriff's Department and such other officers of the Village Council may designate within (14) days written notice, may cause any blight or blighting factors found in violation hereof to be removed from the premises impounded and destroyed or sold for junk, in the discretion of said officer. The cost of said removal shall be assessed against the owner of such vehicle or the premises on which same is located. Any sums realized on the sale may be retained by the Village of Mesick to reimburse it for costs incurred in said removal and safe to the extent of such costs. Any balance of any such sums remaining after such reimbursement shall be paid to the owner of such vehicle or parts thereof.

In addition to the foregoing remedies, if said blight or blighting factor involves an abandoned, vacant or unsafe building, the Sheriff's Department and such other officers as the Village Council may designate, within fourteen (14) days written notice, may cause said building to be demolished and removed and such costs shall be charged against the real estate upon which the building is located and shall be a lien upon such real estate.

Section 8. Construction:

This Ordinance shall apply to any other junk yards, salvage yards, garages, body or paint shops operating within the Village except when exempt by special written agreement from the Village Council and shall be in addition to and not in conflict with all other laws and Ordinances, respecting junk, junk vehicles, and blight.

Section 9. Saving Clause:

Provisions of this Ordinance are hereby declared to be severable and if any clause, sentence, word, section or provision is declared void or unenforceable, for any reason by a Court of competent jurisdiction, the remaining portions of said Ordinance shall remain in full force and effect.

Section 10. Effective Date:

This Ordinance shall take effect 6/July/2001.
