HOWARD S. DYMENT
Family Law

Hi Howard,

Children, Spouses and Relatives of Aging Clients whose Powers of Attorney I created many years ago are increasingly asking me to implement them. It seems as if every day I am speaking with my Clients' named Powers of Attorney as to how to implement their loved one's Powers of Attorney.

A very recent Article by my colleagues at Hull & Hull reminded Powers of Attorney of their onerous responsibilities as a power of attorney but also spoke to the entitlement that the Power of Attorney has to financial compensation for his/her efforts. I have always explained this financial compensation provision when signing up my Clients, but certainly those who are acting now or considering acting should have a full understanding of their fiduciary responsibilities and financial compensatory benefits.

I invite you to set up a Zoom appointment with me to discuss any aspect of this blog with you.
