

Law Offices of Howard S Dymant

Condominium News

that you don't want to miss!

Condo Tribunal Expands Jurisdiction to Deal with Pets, Parking, Lockers and Chargebacks!

Commencing October 1st, 2020, the Ontario Condo Tribunal's Power have been given a sorely needed increase in its powers to adjudicate the thorny issues referred to in the title to this article. Until now these matters had to be litigated in court at a cost both financial and emotional which always far outweighed the gravity of the problem.

Click Here To The Entire Article

Mandatory registration for short-term rental operators aids condo enforcement.

The City of Toronto has regulated that as of September 10th, 2020, if you are renting your home or condo on a short-term basis, you must register with the City of Toronto and renew your licence annually.

Click Here To The Entire Article

Feel free to send your further questions to howard@dymant.com or call 416-861-0087