

Include Your Furry Friends in Your Will: Pet Custody Matters

PET CUSTODY IN YOUR WILL

Hi Howard,

If you are a pet owner, it is important to consider what will happen to your furry friends if something unexpected happens to you. Including a pet custody clause in your will is the responsible way to ensure their safety and well-being. With this in mind, I encourage you to take the necessary steps to provide a plan for your pets' future care. I can help guide you through the process and ensure that your beloved pets are taken care of in the event of your passing. See what happens if you neglect to do so in this very recent Ontario's Superior Court of Justice decision concerning Rocco Jr., a bull terrier, which was owned by Leonard Carvalho, until he died in 2022. By clicking here you can review the court decision which included over 1,200 pages of material submitted, that the Judge reviewed to reach his decision, yet his decision is being appealed.
