FROM THE MANAGER'S DESK

Summer is here, the park has emptied out, and our summer campers are starting to check in. We had a full house again for the Memorial Day holiday, and we had the traditional cookout on Sunday. It is always great to have families meet here to celebrate the holiday and enjoy the park.

It will be quiet here for most of the summer, so we can get the park ready for our guests' return in the fall. We will be refurbishing the mini golf course and the volleyball court, as well as the kayak launch area. Paul is busy scheduling entertainment for our events this season, and we anticipate it will be just as busy as last year.

Enjoy your summer travels, and we will see you soon!

Bev Malouin, Resort Manager

Hear Better Now

Blair Post, HAS, BC-HIS, ACA

Board Certified Hearing Instrument Sciences
American Conference of Audioprosthology

I heard the best statement from one of my clients. He said, "I need to hear better now, not in FIVE YEARS."

I didn't even realize how my lack of pushing or pressure to upgrade was actually a disservice to some clients.

Now I realize, since my clients are getting older their hearing will deteriorate over time. When these next few years are going to be their most active, engaged, involved and social, then these are the years they need to have the best option to hear clearly.

Being able to hear clearly provides confidence and ease in different environments.

My mom, MaryEllen, was profoundly hard of hearing and struggled with higher frequencies, like small children.

When we asked her to babysit, she said she was not confident being alone with Evan. It took us a while to understand her lack of confidence, because we knew she had raised two boys of her own.

When we asked her about her hesitation, she explained that she wasn't sure she would be able to hear his cries.

Looking back, it was probably this heightened anxiousness that prompted her to get a better-quality hearing aid that enabled her to hear with ease in these situations.

As we know, kids, whether our own or our grandkids, are chaotic and create complex listening situations.

If you are struggling to hear the grandkids in your life, call me.

Shakett Creek Estuary

An estuary is a partially enclosed, coastal water body where freshwater from rivers and streams mixes with salt water from the ocean. Estuaries, and their surrounding lands, are places of transition from land to sea. Estuaries filter out sediments and pollutants from rivers and streams before they flow into the ocean, providing cleaner waters for humans and marine life. They are dynamic and productive ecosystems that support a wide variety of plants and animals.

Survival of plants and animals in estuaries requires special adaptations. The ebb and flow of tides may leave some animals and plants, such as oysters and seagrasses, temporarily exposed to air.

Life in an estuary is naturally adapted to withstand ranges in salinity, tides, sunlight and temperatures. They must, however, have a balanced flow of fresh and salt water. This balance can be upset if too much fresh water enters the estuary.

Estuaries, considered "the cradle of the ocean" are home to more than 95% of Florida's recreational and commercial juvenile fish, crustaceans and shellfish. Royal Coachman's shoreline is part of the Shakett Creek/Dona Bay Estuary. The shoreline is protected, as are the mangrove trees along the shore. RCR owns the mangrove islands just off their shoreline. This shoreline is home to many juvenile fish which are protected by the extensive environment of mangrove roots. It is also teeming with tiny fiddler crabs and mole crabs which dig small holes in the sand and dirt on the edge of the shore.

Which are observable at our shoreline, and many others that are not so visible, like mangrove tree crabs, snails and shellfish. If you drive up to the fiddler crab holes, they will all disappear, but if you wait quietly for a few minutes, they will emerge from their holes and start foraging and fussing with each other again. These little creatures (and the small fish) provide food for a myriad of shore birds and small animals (including raccoons and otters). These in turn provide food for eagles, hawks and owls who live near the shore. Also providing food are oyster beds which are scattered near the shoreline.

Summer Cocktails!

Relax by the pool with a refreshing, easy to make cocktail: Pink Grapefruit Margaritas are sweet and tart, the perfect drink for a hot summer day!

Ingredients

- 4 c.
fresh red grapefruit juice
- 1 c.
tequila blanco
- 1/2 c.
orange liqueur (such as triple sec)
- 1/4 c.
fresh lime juice
- 1 tbsp.
sugar
- 2 tsp.
chile-lime seasoning (such as Tajin)
- 1 tsp.
kosher salt
- lime wedges and grapefruit slices,
for garnish

DIRECTIONS:

1. Combine grapefruit juice, tequila, orange liqueur, and lime juice in a pitcher.
2. Combine sugar, chile-lime seasoning, and salt on a shallow plate. Rub edges of a glass with a lime wedge, then dip rim in chile-salt mixture. Add ice to glass and top with margarita. Garnish with lime and grapefruit wedges. Repeat as desired.
