Center CLOSED for Labor Day

We have had an eventful summer!!! We hope that everyone enjoyed the activities, but we are wishing summer a farewell and moving on!!! We are shifting focus on Back to School and Fall Activities. Be on the lookout for special events and field trips!!!

Reminder...

Brightwheel- Don't forget to check your Brightwheel messages daily for teacher communication and center updates.

Shot Records- If your child has recently taken shots, please provide us with a copy for your child's file. The state requires updated shot records.

Transportation Forms—We are required to have transportation forms for each child in our afterschool program who requires bus pick-up. Please be sure to get your child's transportation form in by Wednesday, August 3rd.

Clothing- Please remember to send (2) full sets of clothing for your child each day just in case of an emergency. Pants/shorts, shirts, and socks.

Did You Know...

Transitions: predictable, unpredictable, and emotional

To understand how transitions affect children, think of how transitions affect you. Imagine what it feels like to be told to stop doing something when you are not ready; when it is someone else's idea and not your own. Think also how it feels to make several changes in your day—it can be exhausting! When you understand what you are asking of children, you are better able to make developmentally appropriate decisions.
