Join the Workforce

Did you know that the cyber workforce is not only about people writing code, hacking, being able to understand IT parlance and jargon, stealing data, being able to solve complex mathematics problems and other things that sound weird? The cyber workforce is also about a whole lot of common sense, skilled workers and just about every aspect of your life! Almost everything we do has some kind of connection to the internet. Connecting computers to speak to each other and make things happen has made our lives easier and more comfortable. Sadly, this sometimes comes with daunting cybercrimes that require an intricate cyber workforce to effectively combat these cybercriminals.

So… CONSIDER A CAREER IN CYBER TODAY!
