Faceless Orphans

Faceless Orphans is a Canadian alternative rock band from Rouyn-Noranda in northern Quebec. Formed by Jean Landry (vocals) and Francis Camirand (guitar), the group's line-up includes drummer Marco Lamarche, guitarist Carle Marcotte, and bassist Michaël Gervais. Spectacular musicianship aside, the heart and soul of the band's self-titled debut album lays in its riffs and Landry's passionate delivery. Camirand and Marcotte truly shine throughout the entirety of the album. Lamarche and Gervais drive the songs with their groovy and tasty rhythm work and Landry belts out every lyric with an in your face kind of style that proves to be nothing short of engaging. ~ Review Indie Faceless Orphans is currently gearing up for their first US Tour. They are bringing their "in your face" music for everyone to enjoy! You can't help but to tap your feet or nod your head while listening to their CD and a live performance is so much more!

'Sacred Song contains a melody, acoustic guitar, and vocal harmony which bring to mind Jar Of Flies-era Alice In Chains.'

-- The Ark Of Music

'Faceless Orphans' punk-meets-indie-rock explosion presents an album loaded with energy and grit, as well as a surprisingly satisfying and heartfelt array of songwriting. It's often only one or the other with alternative rock music – the angst and the weight, with the occasional anthem, or those who know how to write songs but don't always bring the right level of musicianship. In this case, you get a more than decent balance of both, and it works really well'. ~ Stereo Stickman
