

Dear _____ (family and friends)-

I know you may have thought of me as somewhat of a “nutcase” or a “religious zealot” from time-to-time. To be truthful, it never really bothered me because I more or less agreed with you. I have been convinced for quite a while that the current events (as awful as they are) were foretold explicitly in the Bible.

The defining event that I hope will allow you to change your mind and begin to view it as I did is the fact that you are now reading this letter, because I am no longer here – I am in heaven, and I went there without dying first. I was, as we believers called it, “Raptured.” I didn’t go alone either – millions of other “religious zealots” went with me – Praise God!

So, as a final attempt to show my love for you, I have left this booklet to let you know some other things the Bible teaches about the treacherous times in which you now live so you will know what is coming and act accordingly.

I don’t leave any of this to in any way condemn you – I truly mean it as act of love (perhaps also as an act of desperation) because I want you to join me in heaven when the time comes. I have no other motive but love for you and love for Jesus. Please consider accepting His ultimate act of love (dying on the Cross FOR YOU) for what it is/was – an act of love, grace, and mercy and an invitation to eternal life in heaven.

All my love forever,
