2026 LOS ANGELES BLACK HISTORY MONTH FESTIVAL

5801 WILSHIRE BLVD
LOS ANGELES CA 90036

February 21 2026

ABOUT THE EVENT

Open Arms Food Pantry and Resource Center is proud to announce our 10th Annual Black History Month festival taking place in February 21 2026 at LA Brea Tar Pits of mid-wilshire.

This event this year will highlight "Mental Health Awareness" & "African American Contributions to America." Programming will feature a headliner, live performances, in-depth panel discussions, vegan cooking demonstrations, food & drinks, and having access to health services, preventative health measures, maternal health, social services support, and mental health resources onsite for community members to partake in.

We are seeking sponsors that align with our mission of continuing to provide family-friendly services and or products, healthier food & beverages, social service information, and ways to improve lifestyle within the Los Angeles African American communities.

Our robust sponsorship packages are designed with focus on engagement, brand recognition, marketing and media partnernships. Sponsorship packages can be curated to specialized budgets as well as adding additional assets for an additional fee.

Previous Sponsors Include McDonalds, Providence Hospital, Cedar Sinai Hospital, LADWP, Pluto TV, Pair of Thieves, Optum Medical, LA Care, Metro LA, SD2 Holly J. Mitchell Office, and more.
