Hunter How API Setup

What is Hunter How?

Hunter. how is the newly released internet search engine for internet researchers. Which is capable of performing fingerprint retrieval of internet-connected devices and services.

Setup an acct:

Forces you to use a Google Acct to create an account**

1. Hop over to: API Docs (hunter.how)
2. Enter a Gmail or Google acct and sign in.
3. Confirm access and integration with the Google account.
4. Done.

Find your API key by:

1. Login at: https://hunter.io/users/sign_in
2. Once logged in the select your account icon in the upper right hand corner and then select "Account Dashboard" in the list.
3. Copy and configure the API key in the software of your choice.

Limits and Quotas on API Requests
- 1 request per account per two seconds
- Up to 10,000 request per Starter account per 30 days
- Up to 50,000 request per Professional account per 30 days
- Up to 100,000 request per Professional Plus account per 30 days