

Document Name	Health Safety, Environmental and Quality Policy
Organisational Area	HSEQ	Document No:	L1-POL-HSEQ-001
Document Type	L1-Policy	Revision:	Oct23
Document Owner	Max Eyre	Effective Date:	October 2023
All printed copies are not controlled. For controlled version refer to electronic version			Page 1 of 1

De-Tect Unit Inspection Europe Ltd, aims to maximise the benefits that our NDT, Inspection, and testing Services for our customers, employees, and partners. We strive to do our daily tasks in a way that conforms to the requirements of all relevant standards including ISO 9001, AS 9100, ISO 14001 ISO 45001, regulations, legislations, and any other applicable requirements. De-Tect Unit Inspection Europe Ltd, will implement and maintain an integrated Health, Safety, Environmental and Quality management system that complies with all applicable standards and requirements.

Due to changing business needs, De-Tect Unit Inspection Europe Ltd, is committed to continual improvement in the HSEQ performance of our operations and continually strives to achieve zero harm to employees, visitors, any other relevant persons, and the protection of the environment including the prevention of pollution. The leadership team is committed to ensure the availability of required resources, skills, mentoring and communication to achieve defined HSEQ objectives.

De-Tect Unit Inspection Europe Ltd, undertake to ensure that our HSEQ management system is developed, documented, implemented, communicated, and maintained in a manner that is both understood and effective at all levels in our business, to enable us to:

- Comply with all applicable HSEQ legal requirements and other requirements to which the company subscribes to.
- Define HSEQ objectives and targets at ALL levels in organizational units, functions, and physical boundaries and continually measure and monitor our activities and progress against our objectives.
- Consultation and participation with employees and representatives in all matters relating to HSEQ in the workplace.
- Monitor the effectiveness of the HSEQ management system by proactive management of business risk and opportunities.
- Proactively seeks opportunities to exceed customer expectations.
- Educate and inform employees to carry out task safely and in an environmentally responsible manner to ensure that a continues professional development strategy remains core to our business goals.
- Implement controls to manage health and safety risks and environmental impacts identified during Hazard Identification Risk Assessments and Aspect and Impact Assessments to prevent injuries, ill health, and damage to the environment.
- Ensure that all incidents that could lead to an environmental impact, injury, occupational disease, damage to property are reported and investigated to determine all contributing factors to implement preventive actions.
- Prevent pollution, reduce, and recycle waste to minimise the consumption of natural resources.
- Establish and maintain appropriate controls, including periodic internal and external audits and reviews to ensure this policy is implemented.
- Ensure workers at all levels are encouraged to report hazardous situations, so that preventive measures can be put in place and corrective action taken.
- Using modern technologies to improve HSEQ performance.
- Committed to impartiality in carrying out its inspection activities, managing conflict of interest and ensuring that Inspection Body objectives are fulfilled and to comply with the requirements of ISO/IEC 17020 and the accreditation body (UKAS).

De-Tect Unit Inspection Europe Ltd will regularly review our progress and communicate results with all stakeholders to enable a relationship based on honesty, openness, and mutual trust. In engaging them, we will share with our stakeholders the responsibility for meeting the requirements of this policy.

Max Eyre
Managing Director
De-Tect Unit Inspection Europe Ltd

Date: 9th July 2025