

About Midnight (Joe's Diner)

Lyrics & music by Robert Paul Conner (A.K.A. Bob Conner 1993)

- 1. Complete strangers stop by Joe's diner about midnight.
- 2. Sit down at the counter % ordered a bite.
- 3. Couldn't help but notice each other's reflection.
- 4. In their glass all alone; % night draggin' on and on.
- 5. Joe broke the ice poured them % a cup of coffee.
- 6. Said I can't help but notice something - you two have a lot in common.
- 7. So they loosened up with a little small talk.
- 8. About Joe's diner and the weather -
- 9. traffic, rat race, fast pace, things could be better.

♪ musical interlude ♪

- 10. They talked about life, love, dreams, and the world needing romance.
- 11. Talked about their past, future, and willingness, to take a chance.
- 12. He reached out and gently touched her hand.
- 13. She looked straight into his eyes, much to their surprise_____.
- 14. They instantly realized, they had to, take some action.
- 15. Satisfy their hunger, the night wasn't getting____ any younger.

♪ musical turnaround and slow down tempo ♪

- 16. Joe turned up the old jukebox.
- 17. She lead him to the diner's private corner.
- 18. Clinging to each other_____ to a romantic slow dance.
- 19. Legend Tony Bennett transcending space and time.
- 20. Reaching out to each other in their minds.
- 21. Puttin' it all on the line_____.

♪ musical turnaround speed up tempo to normal ♪

- 22. Joe kept pouring coffee % till the daylight.
- 23. Synchronized they turned to Joe and said, Thank You for the midnight.
- 24. About Midnight, it all happened about Midnight.
- 25. Two lucky souls, found each other about Midnight !

Copyright © 1993 by Robert Paul Conner
All rights reserved. International copyright secured.
Richland, WA 99354 (USA)