THANK YOU FOR YOUR PRAYERS

Our dad was truly a remarkable man of good faith and honest integrity, and the older I've gotten, the more I've discovered how rare a man of his caliber really is. I will miss his laughter, light, and life he shared with us. I do already. Galatians 6:2 says, "Bear one another's burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ." With that in mind, I want to say thank you to everyone who has sent their prayers, condolences, and words of assurance to our family during this time. Your prayers and words help guide us to and keep our minds steadily fixed on the promise of eternal life, offered to all of us through Jesus. They keep us fixed on dad's eternal life that he now rests in, fully restored to health and joy. Thank you for helping us hold onto that hope and helping us renew our faith in that promise, even in the midst of such a deep, searing loss. Thank you for helping bear our burden of grief.
