Hi everybody,

Well, here we are, December 2024 and it's time for the last word...

As a club we are in a fine tune. Last month on November 13th members had the opportunity to hear a musician who is also in fine tune, Anthony Pfluke. Anthony plays a mean uke and he performed at the Garretson's house in Leaburg to raise money for the Lahani Land Trust which is helping folks who lost their homes in a horrible fire to retain their land by helping with mortgages etc. You can find out more about his music at this link; Home - Anthony Pfluke Fair warning I had to press control and then click the left side of my mouse to get it to load. You might have another way to load depending on your computer. Thanks, Mike Garretson, for making this all happen.

Speaking of fine tuning, we have done a lot over this last year and once again this club continues to amaze me with how smooth it seems to run. From participating in many assorted car shows to the caravan back to Bowling Green, the Cascade Corvette Club has made its presence known throughout the Corvette Community. We put together our first car show since 2017 and continued our long history of fund raising for good causes. We continue to schedule great events like the monthly breakfasts and summer picnics and BBQ's. Members generously open up their homes for events like chili feeds and Halloween parties. Our work with the South Willamette Valley Honor Flight continues. December will be no exception with our annual banquet and annual cookie exchange coming up soon. As we wind down the year and we get ready to install new board members and officers, I want to commend everyone who keeps this club running and rolling down the road of life. Gentle sentient beings (how's that for PC?) start your engines!

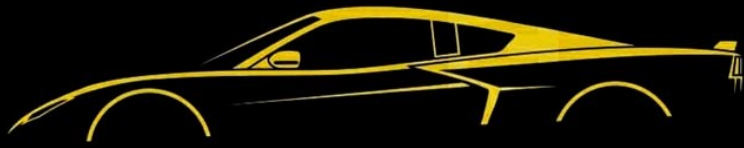

That's it for your humble narrator, Matt. I wish the next president luck. I know we will all stand behind them heading down that road into the future. See ya soon!!!

Once again Cascade Corvette Club partnered with Kendall Cares to provide toys to kids in need. 22 members went toy shopping after the club breakfast on Nov.26 and then dropped off their donations at Kendall Chevrolet. All toys collected by Kendall will be donated to the Pearl Buck Center. Thank you CCC for your generosity and community spirit.

home with more than you brought !
Please bring any jigsaw puzzles (new or used) you would like to exchange. This has become a very popular addition to our tradition.

P.S. - you don't need to participate in the cookie exchange if you just want to join

Aloha Everyone,

After coming from a previous concert of more than 500 guests, Anthony Pfluke and Ethan Villanueva held nothing back delivering an outstanding benefit concert for Lahaina Community Land Trust at the Garretson's Estate.

An elite few enjoyed the Ukulele Workshop with Anthony and Ethan prior to the show. Mahalo to Kona Cafe Hawaiian BBQ on Main St. Springfield for providing our main dish. Guests provided an outstanding assortment of side dishes and desserts to top off the event. The expected rain didn't hinder the day of fun on the river!

The event raised close to $1200 as donations are still coming in. YOU CAN STILL DONATE by simply sending a check (PO Box 692, Walterville, OR 97489) written to "Lahaina Community Trust Fund" or go on their website and donate by credit card (if by credit card, please contact Mike with the amount donated so we can keep accurate record of funds raised).

A very Special Mahalo to Anthony Pfluke and Ethan Villanueva for making this event a huge success!

Maui Strong! Lahaina Strong! All because of the help by everyone!

Aloha
