March Presidents Message

Welcome to March everybody,

We have all felt a little cabin fever by now unless it was just the common cold making you feel a bit under the weather. Speaking of weather, it's so cold out I saw a politician with his hands in his own pockets. But I digress.

In club news we have made progress regarding the upcoming show. Kendall is giving us $1100 as well as providing a location and restrooms, both of these things have cost the club a pretty penny in the past. Kudos to Kendall! While sometimes it seems like herding cats, we are making progress and I think we will have a great show.

One event this month included a Valentines Day dinner on February 15th at the new "Old Spaghetti Factory" where the old "Electric Station" once was. Good food, good friends made for a great evening. Plus, we got spumoni ice cream for dessert.

Another event included breakfast at the "Barger Grill and Tap House". If you have not made to a club breakfast yet then you may desire a good excuse...might I recommend "It's too cold out!!!"

Members of the club attended the Beaver State Corvette Club show in Albany on Saturday February 24th and then had lunch at "Southpaws". Afterwards Cheryl and I were invited by Terry Thompson to view his champion black walnut at his house.

If you know me you know I am crazy about trees. Terry's tree is an amazing specimen, it is believed to be currently in the top three largest Black Walnut trees in Oregon.

The following citation I copied off the internet and forgot to write down the source, sorry whoever you are...

"Oregon Black Walnut (Juglans hindsii x nigra) is a hybrid of Eastern black walnut and Claro walnut. Similar in appearance to Claro, it tends to have much more purple tones like the Eastern black walnut. It can also have streaks of gray, red, or even greenish-yellow, depending on the soil the tree grew in. When settlers came to California after the Civil War, they brought Eastern black walnut seedlings with them, establishing orchards in what are now the San Joaquin and Sacramento valleys, among others. As people wandered north to Oregon, so did their plants and Eastern black walnut trees began to spring up as people moved up through the Willamette Valley. The cross of Eastern black and Claro walnut proliferated throughout the valley, which is where we salvage most of our walnut today." Terry's walnut Note the people in back to show its size

That's all for this month,
Your humble narrator and president at large,
Matt

Cascade Visits Beaver State

Beaver State Corvette Club held their annual Heritage Mall Corvette Show Feb. 24-25 in Albany. Cascade Corvette Club members traveled north (through dense fog) to visit their show and eat their cookies.

We know their show was a success because a new member was waiting outside for the doors to open so he could join. Advertising DOES work!

Misc. Notes

Cabins are still available at Lake Creek Lodge for the May 14-16 club outing. Go to: lakecreeklodge.com to book your cabin. Do Not use any of the online booking sites like Reservations.com or Booking.com.

Our Valentine's Day Dinner was a huge success - 30 people attended, the food was excellent, service was great (after some initial confusion), weather was awful and the parking is...um, different. But we survived the negatives and had a great night out with friends.

2024 is Cascade Corvette Club's 60th Anniversary!

Erica at Fiddler's Green Golf Shop Embroidery Dept. has designed a 60 Year logo for us and we will be placing polo shirt orders on March 1 and again in April.

You can also supply your own apparel and she can embroider this logo for you for $8.50. Look for a shirt order form in this newsletter.

If you have not yet renewed your membership for 2024 (or informed us that you plan to), this will be the last newsletter you receive. March 1 the 2023 mailing list will be deleted.

Between family issues, crummy weather, falling on the ice (I'm not the only one!!), doctor's appointments and a variety of other complaints....I have been remiss about keeping up with the new members and new cars in the club.

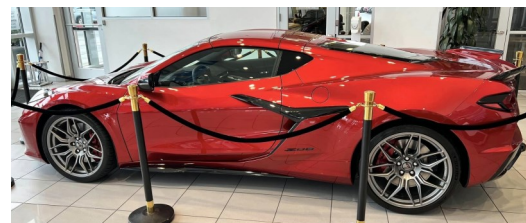

Jeff Albright started the "new car parade" with his '21 Red Mist HTC.

Then the next month Norm Oswald spotted this "21 Black HTC.

And recently Don Thumel received his "24 Red Mist ZO6.

I'm sure there are more, maybe by April I will be caught up....nah!

BOWLING GREEN, KY, February 12, 2024 –

On February 12, 2014, at 5:38 AM, the National Corvette Museum suffered a cave-in that claimed eight cars from the museum's multimillion dollar collection and caused an international sensation. The video and images captured by museum security cameras went viral, circulating around the globe. Viewers were left stunned at the loss of such rare and remarkable treasures, and all eyes were on the National Corvette Museum's response and recovery.

Today, on the tenth anniversary of the world-famous sinkhole, the National Corvette Museum is celebrating incredible change and growth in the decade since, revealing details on its upcoming exhibit "Ground to Sky: The Sinkhole Reimagined." The exhibit will open to the public on Friday, June 14, 2024, and will run through September 15, 2024. It will document the moments, memories, and machines that made history that fateful day, while focusing on the accomplishments of countless Museum staff and supporters who built back and reimagined a National Corvette Museum that continues to evolve.

The National Corvette Museum captured the attention of the world a decade ago, and we've spent the last decade turning misfortunes into hard-fought and well-earned triumphs," said Kaye Wagner, National Corvette Museum Board Chair. "With over 15 major exhibitions, tens of millions of dollars in renovations and improvements, the creation of a STEAM-focused education gallery, the addition of a world-class Motorsports Park to our campus, and countless other advances in the last ten years, the National Corvette Museum is proud of our journey. Thanks to our amazing team and supporters, we have survived a sinkhole. Not only have we endured, but we are thriving."

According to Wagner, "Like all museums, the National Corvette Museum rotates artifacts on and off exhibit to rest them and bring in fresh material for our visitors. Those who wish to see the sinkhole artifacts should make definitive plans to visit during the run of "Ground to Sky." Once the exhibit closes, these artifacts will be rotated back into the collection for rest from public view."

The exhibit will feature two Corvettes that were recovered from the sinkhole and fully restored, a 2009 "Blue Devil" ZR1 and the 1 Millionth Corvette (a white '92 model). It will also include other cars that remain damaged from the incident and dramatic multimedia that illustrate a look back at the National Corvette Museum's remarkable history, and a vision of where the Museum is heading.
