INFORMATION ON REGISTERING A HORSE WITH HOBBY HORSE RIDERS

Registering a Horse

1. Horses and Ponies must be registered with the HHR to enter Official Events and Competitions. Registration is a means of identification, to establish ownership for competition purposes and if need be, proof of identification. Horses and ponies do not need to be registered with the HHR to take part in Training Competitions or Associate Competitions or to participate in training days at a Local Events where the training class at the Local Event provides no prize money, voucher or reward of any kind other than receipt of a ribbon or rosette.
2. Application papers must include owner/s HHR member number, the full name, address and signature of the owner, or owners. The description of the horse and diagram must be accurately recorded. If the name of the horse is ever changed or any pertinent changes are made the Person Responsible must return the identification papers to the HHR for updating.
3. Each horse will be issued a Registration Number, Bridle Number, Performance Card and HHR Logo Brand & Certificate issued at time of HHR acceptance of registration and on receipt of payment. NOTE HHR may take up to 30 days to complete processing an application.
4. The Person Responsible for a horse at an Event is responsible for the accuracy of their identification papers and keeping accurate results records for each Sport. Papers must be available for inspection when required by an official of the HHR or the Organisation Officials of a Competition or Event.
5. Owners must advise HHR at the time of registration if the horse has been imported into Australia. Foreign – owned Horses or imported Horses will be graded / classified at the discretion of the sport/s concerned.

Horse Names – Life RegistrationGeneral Regulations Article 1 – Names of Horses

1. Horses registered with the HHR are registered for life. (i.e. A horse can only be registered once with the HHR.) Members attempting to do a new registration of a horse that is already registered may be subject to penalty.

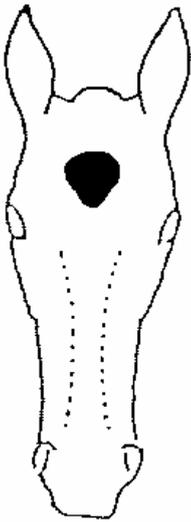

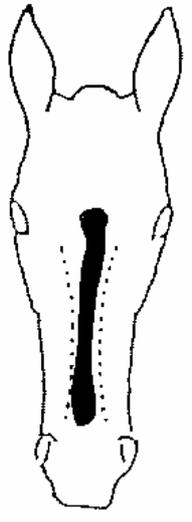

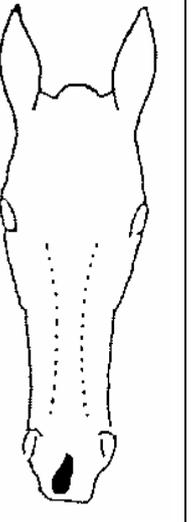

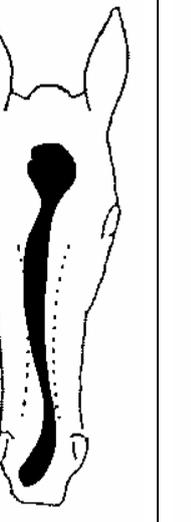

2. In principle, the first registered name of a horse registered with the HHR will remain on permanent record.
 - 2.1. When applying for the initial registration of a horse or pony with the HHR at least five names ranked in preference must be given.
 - 2.2. Horses cannot be registered as trade names i.e. Versace, Calvin Klein or Nescafe. This is an HHR rule.
 - 2.3. Horse names may not to exceed 28 characters including spaces.
 - 2.4. There are certain horse names which may never be reused even if the horse is retired or deceased. These names have been given exclusive rights if the horse has made significant achievements usually relating to the International or World Hobby Horse Games. A list will be compiled
 - 2.5. Prefix initials (e.g. "CH") are not permitted. (Example: "November Rain" cannot be "CH November Rain".)
 - 2.6. Punctuation marks (e.g. full stops, commas, etc.) and special characters (e.g. [asterisk] *, [ampersand] & etc.) must not be used in names. (Example: "Mr Burns" cannot be "Mr. [full stop] Burns".)
3. Horses that have been registered with another recognized breed society may be HHR registered using that name. Where the name exists already, a trailing number may be added. This rule also applies to horses being imported into Australia.
4. If the owner applies for a name change or a change to the commercial prefix/suffix, the horse's registration papers and Identification Document must retain the old name or prefix/suffix for the next 12 months as follows: new name and/or new prefix/suffix ex previous name/prefix/ suffix.
5. A horse/pony name including a prefix or suffix may be registered with the HHR provided it complies with one of the following conditions:
 - 5.1. A commercial prefix/suffix may be added to the name and must be entered in the registration papers. However, at under the patronage of the HHR IOC, such prefix/suffix cannot appear in a program and cannot be used in any other way.
 - 5.2. A Breeder/Stud prefix or suffix shall be given to a horse or pony bred by breeders and studs who are a member of the HHR or a recognised Hobby horse Breed Society.
6. hhr reserves the right to refuse to register any horse under any particular name.

Owner/s and Lessees

General Regulations - Article 2

1. All owners, including part-owners, must be current Member of HHR. Any other listed category of members is not eligible to register or be part-owners of a horse. Category examples include Recreational or Affiliate Club. An Associate member may be an owner of a horse but cannot ride or show the horse in official competition. The horse must be ridden by current financial FULL members in all Official competitions.
2. The Primary Owner is the owner who is to receive any information relating to the horse, i.e. its registration papers, performance cards etc. Usually the rider or the owner with the largest ownership share is the primary owner.
3. HHR accepts registrations on the understanding that the Person or Body making the registration is the bona fide owner, part-owner or lessee of the horse. HHR will accept no responsibility on cases of disputed ownership, which must be settled by the parties concerned.
4. HHR will keep a register of the owners of horses including multiple ownership. Changes of owners and records of leasing agreements must be entered in the identification papers by HHR.
5. Owners of horses sold or leased must return the identification papers immediately to HHR with the name and address of the Purchaser or Lessee. The new owners will pay the change of ownership fee. ($5.00)
6. Leasing of horses is permitted under the following conditions.

- a. The form and duration of the lease agreement is a matter for the parties concerned; it does not require the approval of the HHR.
- b. The member to whom the horse is leased is regarded in all respects by HHR as the bona fide owner and shall have the same rights and duties.
- c. When a horse is leased this will not be regarded as a change of ownership.
- d. If a leasing agreement is cancelled during the period of lease or is renewed, HHR must receive written confirmation from the parties of the lease.

STAR Any white marking on forehead	STRIPE Narrow white marking running down nose	SNIP White marking in vicinity of nostrils	STAR, STRIPE & SNIP CONJOINED	BLAZE Wide white markings covering most of face.

Other Markings - Scars

The position of scars, accidental or otherwise MUST be marked on the diagrams using an 'x'.

Other Markings - Whorls

The position of whorls MUST be marked on the diagrams using an 'o'.

Pinto, Paint & Appaloosa Horses - Members who submit an application to register a horse with excessive markings i.e. pinto, paint or appaloosa, must include 3 clear photographs (by two sets) with the application taken of the front of the horse (showing its head and neck) and from the near side and off side. HHR Office staff will then staple one set of photos to the registration certificate and one set to the original application. An HHR stamp will be placed on the back of the photos that are stapled to the registration certificate to ensure that they are never altered.

Brands

Note: All new Registrations from January 1 2018 will have a Life Registration Number and option of adding HHR Brand.

Branding (OPTIONAL) need only be on one side or base of neck of the horse. It does not matter what the brand is. Brands are drawn onto the diagrams of the registration certificate as well as recorded in words. Some common description of brands use the words:

Conjoined = when two characters are touching –

Over = when one character sits over the other

Script = used to describe a cursive or fancy letter

Lazy = when a letter or number is on its side

Running = used to describe a character that's slightly on its side (like italic text)
