Our Company Services

I am Deepak Shivarudrappa, My job is my passion. All my life is linked to the mechanics and electronics that surrounds me, for this reason I've decided to share everything what I know in the world of remapping of a control unit in cars and Embedded Project Training.

ECU Training

An electronic control unit is a computer called ECU used in today's cars and trucks to control the engine. we are providing service & training.
