Introduction

Cookies are small text files that are placed on your device when you visit a website. They are widely used to make websites work more efficiently, as well as to provide information to the owners of the site. Other tracking technologies such as scripts, tags, and beacons may also be used and are collectively referred to as 'trackers' in this policy.

Strictly Necessary Cookies - These cookies are essential for the operation of our website and to deliver the services you have requested. Without these cookies, certain functions of the site cannot be provided.

Performance and Analytics Cookies - We use analytics tools such as Google Analytics to help us understand how visitors use our website. These cookies collect information about website traffic, user behaviour, and help us improve the website.

Examples of cookies we use include:

- _ga – stored for 2 years (used by Google Analytics to distinguish users).
- _gid – stored for 1 day (used by Google Analytics to distinguish users).
- _gat – stored for 1 minute (used by Google Analytics to throttle request rate).

Functionality Cookies

These cookies allow the website to remember choices you make (such as your language or region) and provide enhanced, more personal features.
