6. It shall be unlawful for any person, partnership, corporation or other entity, to display, sell, offer for sale, trade, or barter, or knowingly give away any diseased animal, or allow any diseased animal that is afflicted with contagious disease to be exposed in any place of public access. This is not meant to interfere with the daily operation of the Animal Control Facility or Veterinary clinics.

SECTION 17: ABANDONMENT

It shall be unlawful for any person to abandon any domestic animal upon any public place, including the right-of-way of any public highway, or upon the property of another.

SECTION 18: ANIMALS IN HEAT

Every female dog/cat in heat, not spayed, shall be confined in a building or secure enclosure in such manner that such female dog or cat cannot come in contact with another animal except for planned breeding.

SECTION 19: POSSESSION OF DANGEROUS ANIMAL

1. Whenever an Animal Control Officer or Police Officer determines upon personal observation and investigation that an animal is a dangerous animal as defined in this ordinance, the officer, shall notify the owner or any person having custody or control of said dangerous animal in writing or by verbal communication.
2. No person shall allow any dangerous animal to be on any private or public property other than the property owned by the owner or keeper of the animal, unless such animal is securely muzzled and leashed or caged. Adequate safeguards shall be taken to prevent unauthorized access to a dangerous animal on the owner or keeper's property by persons lawfully on the property.
3. Any person owning or keeping a dangerous animal which has a propensity to attack without provocation or has been determined to be dangerous shall provide an adequate enclosure as defined in this ordinance.
4. Any owner or keeper of an animal which has been determined dangerous shall be given seven (7) days' notice to comply with provision (Section 14, 3) above. For each day past the seven (7) day compliance allowances that the owner or keeper does not comply; the owner or keeper of the dangerous animal will be fined up to one hundred dollars ($100.00) per day.

SECTION 20: RABIES CONTROL AND PREVENTION

1. Anyone who knowingly or intentionally harbors a dog over the age of six (6) months and not immunized against rabies commits harboring a non-immunized dog. See Ind. Code § 35-46-3-1.
2. Anyone found to be in violation of this provision shall be fined $20. Provided said dog has been impounded, said fine shall be paid to the Animal Control Facility prior to its release. Vet will immunize on premises prior to releasing; Owner shall reimburse cost of immunization.
3. No owner of any dog/cat over the age of six months shall keep or maintain any dog/cat unless it has been vaccinated by a licensed veterinarian with anti-rabies vaccine.
4. Proof of vaccination shall be maintained by the owner for display local laws and with all regulations in regard to animal care and control that are adopted from time to time by Harrison County and the State of Indiana.
5. If a non-immunized animal is believed to have rabies or been bitten by an animal that is suspected of having rabies, such animal shall be impounded by the County Animal Control Officer or his agent, and placed under observation by the Animal Control Officer for the County Health Department. If suspected animal is impounded it will be at the expense of the owner for a period of not less than 10 days.
6. No person knowing or suspecting an animal of having rabies shall allow such animal to be taken off his premises or beyond the limits of the county without the written permission of the County Health Officer or his designee.
7. Every owner, or other person, upon ascertaining an animal is rabid, shall immediately notify the County Health Officer or County Animal Control Officer, who shall either impound the animal or destroy it, if said animal must be destroyed it shall be done in such a manner that the head can be preserved for testing, in accordance with all applicable laws.
8. The owner is required to provide paper documentation for rabies vaccination, if unable to provide said paperwork the Veterinarian that gave the vaccine may give verbal confirmation or a paper document.

SECTION 21: ANIMAL BITES

1. If any person or animal is a victim of an animal bite, the victim or witness shall immediately notify an Animal Control Officer, County Health Officer, Police Officer of the incident, and provide a description of the animal and identification, if possible, of the owner. When an animal is determined to have bitten a person or another animal, the animal shall be confined in quarantine for a period of 10 days, with the exact duration subject to the judgment of the County Health Officer or his designee.
2. If the owner of the biting animal has proof of current rabies inoculation, the animal may be left in the charge of the owners under quarantine unless, in the judgment of the County Health Officer, it should be removed to the Animal Control Facility for the period of observation. The length of observation shall not be less than 10 days from the date that bite occurred.
3. The owner shall be liable for cost incurred in the quarantine of the animal and for any personal and property damage related to the incident.

SECTION 22: IMPOUNDMENT PERIOD

1. Impounded dogs, cats, horses and other vertebrate animals with identification tags (owner's information is present on the tag and or collar) shall be kept for not less than seven (7) days to permit their owner to claim them. After the seven day period has elapsed, these animals shall be placed for adoption, euthanized or disposed of if their owners have not claimed them and paid the required fees.
2. Impounded dogs, cats, horses and other vertebrate animals without identification tags (owner's information not present on the tag and or collar) shall be kept for not less than five (5) days. After the five day period has elapsed, these animals shall be placed for adoption, euthanized or disposed of if their owners have not claimed them and paid the required fees.

SECTION 23: CRUELTY TO AN ANIMAL

Mistreatment of animals is prohibited under this ordinance. Accordingly, it shall be unlawful for any person to willfully or maliciously torture, torment, beat, kick, strike, mutilate, injure, disable any animal. However, this does not apply if a person is being attacked by a vicious animal.

It shall be known that during a cruelty investigation an agent of Harrison County Animal Control shall be allowed to do welfare checks on any animals owned by or associated with the individual under investigation.

Furthermore, It shall be unlawful for any person to incite stage or set any animal to fighting within the County.

SECTION 24: HEALTH AND SAFETY

The Animal Control Facility and its agents shall only be responsible to handle animal carcasses which have been preserved in a state to prevent decomposition of the animal carcass. Carcasses which are in an unhealthy state and may constitute a health hazard due to the state of decomposition, are not required to be disposed of by the Animal Control Facility, but may be disposed of at the discretion of the Animal Control Officer.

SECTION 25: ENTICING ANIMALS TO ANOTHER

1. It shall be unlawful for any person, not so authorized to enter or invade the private premises of another to capture, entice or take any animal out of the enclosure or premises of the owner, or to seize any such animal anywhere while such animal is accompanied by its owner, keeper or custodian.
2. It shall be unlawful to entice any animal away from the premises of the person owning or keeping such animal, or to entice any animal from any street, alley or public place in this City with the intention of depriving the owner of the possession thereof, except as authorized in this Section.
3. It shall be unlawful to bring within the County any animal for the purpose of impounding or other disposition thereof, or collecting any fee or reward for the return thereof, except as provided in this Section.

SECTION 26: NOTICE TO OWNER

In the event that an impounded animal is wearing an identification tag, the Animal Control Facility will make reasonable effort to contact the animal owner.

SECTION 27: ENFORCEMENT

1. The Animal Control Officer shall keep a record of all animals impounded in the County Animal Control Facility, which record shall show the date of impoundment, the reason thereof, the name and address of collars, tags, or marks of the animal impounded.
2. It shall be a violation of this Ordinance to interfere with the Animal Control Officer, an employee of Harrison County, or any law enforcement officer in the performance of their duties hereunder.
3. Upon information sufficient to establish a violation of the provisions of this Ordinance, the Animal Control Officer or any law enforcement officer may issue to the person committing such violation or to the owner or persons having custody or control of any animal involved in such violation either.

- (1) An official warning; or
- (2) A Notice of Ordinance Violation.

An official warning shall state the name of the person to whom the warning is being issued, the nature of the violation, the date of the violation and any other pertinent information concerning the violation. Such official warning shall also state that it is only a warning and is not a notice to appear to answer to any such violation.

A Notice of Ordinance Violation shall state the name of the person to whom the notice is being issued, the nature of the violation, the specific section of this Ordinance which has been violated, the date of the violation, and any other, information which is pertinent to the violation and its disposition.

The Notice of violation shall additionally instruct the person to whom the notice is being issued the date, time and place before which he or she shall appear to respond to such notice and the procedures for admitting or denying a violation.

SECTION 28: DIRECTOR MAY DECLARE AMNESTY

1. The Director may suspend the civil and criminal penalties or fines and fees of the County ordinances at their discretion in regards to working with an individual or owner to fix the situation before pursuing legal action.

SECTION 29: PROHIBITIONS AND PENALTIES

1. Any person who violates the provisions of this ordinance and who appears at the designated office (Animal Control Facility) within ten (10) days of the date of the Notice of Ordinance Violation shall either admit or deny the violation. If admitted, the violator shall pay the applicable civil penalty provided in the Schedule of Civil Penalties,

- attached to this Ordinance. This Schedule may be modified from time to time by the Commissioners of Harrison County.
2. If the person served with a Notice of Violation fails to appear at the Animal Control Facility within ten (10) days of the date of Notice of Ordinance Violation having been issued, such violation shall be filed with the Harrison County Superior Court and such violator shall be summoned to appear before said court.
 3. If the person served with a Notice of Violation timely enters a denial of the violation, the violation shall be referred to the Board of Commissioners Attorney and a complaint for violation or ordinance shall be filed on the ordinance violations docket of Harrison Superior Court.
 4. Upon finding a person in violation of this Ordinance, the Court shall enter judgment for Harrison County against the violator in an amount not less than the penalty prescribed above, and not more than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00).
 5. If any violation would be continued, each day's violation shall be deemed a separate violation subject to penalty as such.
 6. All court and attorney costs associated with the collection of violation penalties through the court shall be borne by the violator of the ordinance.
 7. All fines collected under this Ordinance shall be placed in a no reverting fund for the operation of the Animal Control Facility to be administered by the Harrison County Council.

SECTION 30: POSSESSION OF A DANGEROUS DOG

As used in this section, "dangerous dog" means:

1. A canine that has bitten, attacked, or inflicted injury on a companion animal that is a dog or cat or killed a companion animal that is a dog or cat. A canine is not a dangerous dog if, upon investigation, a law-enforcement officer or animal control officer finds that
 - a. No serious physical injury, as determined by a licensed veterinarian, has occurred to the dog or cat as a result of the attack or bite;
 - b. Both animals are owned by the same person; and such attack occurred on the property of the attacking or biting dog's owner or custodian; or
 - c. Upon a person consists solely of a single nip or bite resulting only in a scratch, abrasion, or other minor injury.
2. No dog shall be found to be a dangerous dog as a result of biting, attacking, or inflicting injury on a dog or cat while engaged with an owner or custodian as part of lawful hunting or participating in an organized, lawful dog handling event. No dog shall be found to be a dangerous dog if the court determines, based on the totality of the evidence before it, or for other good cause, that the dog is not dangerous or a threat to the community.
3. No animal shall be found to be a dangerous dog if the threat, injury, or damage was sustained by a person who was,

- b. committing, at the time, a willful trespass upon the premises occupied by the animal's owner or custodian; or
 - c. Provoking, tormenting, or physically abusing the animal, or can be shown to have repeatedly provoked, tormented, abused, or assaulted the animal at other times.
4. While on the property of its owner, an animal found to be a dangerous dog shall be confined indoors or in a securely enclosed and locked structure of sufficient height (at least 6ft or in a kennel run with a secure roof) and design to prevent its escape or direct contact with or entry by minors, adults, or other animals. While so confined within the structure, the animal shall be provided with Section 8 requirements. When off its owner's property, an animal found to be a dangerous dog shall be kept on a leash and muzzled in such a manner as not to cause injury to the animal or interfere with the animal's vision or respiration, but so as to prevent it from biting a person or another animal.
5. The owner of any animal found to be a dangerous dog shall, within 30 days of such finding, obtain a dangerous dog registration certificate from Harrison County Animal Control. On January 31st of every year the owner or handler of the canine deemed dangerous must call into the Facility to update the records of any changes to the canine or living situations.
6. The owner shall promptly notify Harrison County Animal Control of,
- a. the names, addresses, and telephone numbers of all owners;
 - b. all of the means necessary to locate the owner and the dog at any time;
 - c. any complaints or incidents of attack by the dog upon any person or cat or dog;
 - d. any claims made or lawsuits brought as a result of any attack;
 - e. chip identification information;
 - f. proof of insurance or surety bond if required; and
 - g. The death of the dog.
7. After an animal has been found to be a dangerous dog, the animal's owner shall immediately, upon learning of same, cause the local animal control authority to be notified if the animal
- a. is loose or unconfined;
 - b. bites a person or attacks another animal; or
 - c. is sold, is given away, or dies. Any owner of a dangerous dog who relocates to a new address shall, within 10 days of relocating, provide written notice to the appropriate local animal control authority for the old address from which the animal has moved and the new address to which the animal has been moved.

8. The provisions of this subsection shall not apply to any animal that, at the time of the acts complained of, was responding to pain or injury, or was protecting itself, its kennel, its offspring, a person, or its owner's or custodian's property, or when the animal is a police dog that is engaged in the performance of its duties at the time of the attack.
9. Whenever an owner or custodian of an animal found to be a dangerous dog is charged with a violation of this section, the animal control officer shall confine the dangerous dog until such time as evidence shall be heard and a verdict rendered. The court, through its contempt powers, may compel the owner, custodian, or harbinger of the animal to produce the animal.
10. Exceptions may be made to deem a canine dangerous if a canine is acting aggressive and is going after an individual and or other animals, but no injury occurs if the party being violated is cautious enough to avoid injury.

SECTION 31: EFFECTIVE DATE

This ordinance shall supersede and replace all previous ordinances related to animal control and all such prior ordinances are hereby void. This ordinance shall be in full force and effect from and after its passage and publication in accordance with the laws of the State of Indiana.
