Jesus, the True Blessing

Jesus is the way, the truth, and the life. He holds the key to every one of our challenges. With Him, all things are possible.

At LLP, we see blessings abound as people turn to Jesus with painful life events, physical maladies, or emotional turmoil. During a recent Intensive Prayer Ministry (IPM), six recipients were ministered to by fourteen LLP volunteers. Some of their testimonies are found on the next page! God was releasing His blessings, said Ken Nelson, LLP co-founder and IPM prayer minister. Prayer matters. Our prayers matter.

We, like Abraham, are blessed by God to be a blessing to others. As disciples of Christ, we listen to his teachings that we love unconditionally, forgive 70 x 7, serve joyfully, and bless others. We let our lights shine before others, so that they may see good works and give glory to our Father who is in heaven. Matthew 5:16

With grateful hearts, we give thanks to God for the blessing of Jesus. Following His call within the ministries of LLP continues to be a thrilling adventure as we watch, in awe and wonder, as the light and love of Jesus comforts, heals, delivers, and restores hurting people. We are witnesses to the Truth that, from His abundance we have all received one gracious blessing after another. John 1:16 NLT

We can't say it enough: Jesus is the true blessing. All glory to God.

LLP Hosts the Fall IPM Intensive Prayer Ministry

Before the small groups gathered to start their intensive prayer time, LLP explored Invisible Barriers to Healing by Derek Prince. These barriers can prevent healing and are important to address as guided by the Holy Spirit.

First, Lucinda taught on ignorance of God's word, unbelief, and unconfessed sin

Then, Judy taught about the importance of forgiveness

Finally, Ken taught on the occult, freemasonry and effects of a curse

The group also discussed other barriers to healing from John Mellor

Not Being Honest and Transparent – Proverbs 16:17; James 5:16; Galatians 6:1-2

Letting Fear Enter Your Heart – Job 3:24-26; 4:14-15; Heb. 11:1; John 14:1; Rom. 14:23

Murmuring and Complaining – Numbers 12:1-3, 10-15; I Cor 10:10-11; Phil. 2:14-15

Pursuing Signs and Wonders (signs and wonders are to follow us) – Mark 16:20

Expecting God to Heal on our Terms

Rationalism and Reasoning Instead of Child-like Faith

Looking to Man rather than God

An Unbridled Tongue Life & death are in the power of the tongue. – Mark 11:23-24; Heb. 4:12

Being Problem Centered

Snippets of IPM Testimonies

When I was asked to be a recipient at IPM, my thought was "I'm fine, I don't have anything you need to pray for me". But I came anyway, walking in feeling like my life's pretty steady and stable. Within a few minutes, the Lord opened my eyes that He's doing way more than I think. We prayed about my family, my life and purpose, and even my Thanksgiving plans - where God really wants to show up! It turned into this big spiritual thing, and I am really excited about watching Him work in all of that.

I came here today feeling a lot of hurt and resentment and bitterness. I had a beautiful healing prayer time and not just healing for myself, but I felt God giving a healing to my Mother and Grandmother - both living with Him in heaven, so I know they are healed. I just thought back to a time where there was hurt there and God told me it was healed. Praise the Lord

For me, it was a real battle to get here today. Once I got here, I knew I was supposed to be here, and I have been so blessed. It is a privilege to be part of LLP; to be able to pray together and just love each other, it's awesome.

As we were downstairs praying, it occurred to me there were other teams praying too and how God was releasing His blessing and what a blessing it was to be part of the blessing. Prayer matters. Our prayers matter. He loves us and He wants big things for us so that we can experience His Kingdom here on earth.

Rachel, Anna, Brenda, Megan: Some of the IPM Participants

I came in today carrying a lot of trauma. One of my obstacles is that I intellectually know the Father loves me but I don't know (deep inside) that He loves me. Because of things that happened and words spoken over me, I tend to push Him and His gifts and blessings away from me. During the healing prayer times, we broke through some of those obstacles. I am worthy. I do matter. He's going to turn all of my pain into a beautiful purpose that brings Him glory and honor!
