

Listen Love Pray

Workshop - How to pray for healing - August 9th

Inner Healing

Wounds from the past

"Painful memories can damage the emotions, crippling and binding us in our personal, emotional and spiritual lives. Unless God heals us in our areas of brokenness, we will not live and grow into the people that God created us to be." Linda Strickland 2013

Francis and Judith MacNutt of Christian Healing Ministries said, "Jesus, who is the same yesterday, today and forever, takes the memories of our past and heals them from the effects of those emotional wounds that still remain and affect us. He can fill with His love all those places in us that have so long been empty."

Physical Healing

Injury and Sickness

Catherine Marshall stated, "Jesus came to earth to reveal His Father's nature and His will for mankind. Jesus saw sickness and disease as intruders in His Father's world, part of Satan's work, therefore evil all the way. Consistently, He fought disease just as any dedicated physician fights it."

Francis MacNutt wrote, "In thirty years of praying for the sick, we discovered that soaking prayer and laying on of hands helps immeasurably. It's like God's radiation treatment: The longer the sickness is held in the force-field of God's love, the more it shrinks, until it finally disappears."

How to pray for physical healing

Ask the person about the ailment:

- How long have you had this?
- What was happening at the time of onset?
- On a scale of 1 - 10 what pain number are you at right now?
- Do you need to forgive anyone (about anything)?
- Help guide the recipient into God's healing presence
- See LLP checklist (scripture, soaking, follow Holy Spirit prompts)
- Be led by Holy Spirit (lay hands on, ask for healing light of Jesus)
- Have the recipient "test it" out
- If there is a bit of progress, thank God and continue to pray

Thank you to the prayer team at the July 19th prayer blitz

RICH: Recovery in Christ's Healing

This men's recovery meeting is held every 1st and 3rd Thursday nights at 6pm. The LLP team provides a meal, leads an interactive program, and prays for the men. Contact tedlistenlovepray@gmail.com to volunteer to help that night or to provide a meal. Training provided.

Avoiding Scams

Thank you Mike (special agent) and Kristin Nelson for presenting an important program August 11th, teaching us how to recognize various scams and ways to protect ourselves on our cell phones, in the store, with online communication, and at ATM machines. The evening ended with a blessing read over all attendees.

Blessing

Excerpts from several pages in Blessing your Spirit – Sylvia Gunter/Arthur Burk

I bless you with peace that comes from God who created light in great darkness, who brings light into the very shadow of death. I bless you with knowing that God makes peace regardless of your circumstances. You are living in troublesome days, when scams pop up everywhere you turn, in your emails, your texts, in phone calls, at ATM machines. There can be much anxiety and uncertainty. And many other circumstances you will face in your life are not conducive to peace.

Although you are living in this concerning time in history, you can walk in the light because God decrees that the light of his presence shines in darkness. I bless you with not being dependent on circumstances in your world, but receiving from your Father the peace that he offers in your life, no matter how dark it is around you.

I bless you with freedom from fear of man. I bless you with an experiential knowledge of God's presence and his intervention in your life, so that although the enemy may be in the land and things are not going well, there is a rock solid knowledge that your Father God is present, contemporary, and current in your culture, life, and circumstances.

I bless you with faith to look at problems through your Father's eyes and realize that every problem can be an opportunity to experience His faithfulness. God has an infinite amount of wisdom. Problems are the playing field for the wisdom of God to be displayed. I bless you with rising to the challenge of finding God's wisdom. I bless you with perseverance to seek out the solutions.

I bless you with having the mind of Christ, so that you can see things from His perspective and see solutions that others can't see. I bless you with shouts of joy over the intervening hand of God, as He rescues you from the work of His enemies and yours. I bless you in the name of Jesus of Nazareth.
