SILENCE IS A GAMECHANGER:

THE BOOK:

Women are depriving themselves of spending time alone. In the day-to-day hustle and bustle of getting kids to school, taking care of a family, extra-curricular activities, punching the clock, running a business, church responsibilities, community service work, and never ending events, women are forgetting the power of refilling their cups through quiet time.

In this purpose power plan, Author and Speaker Terrylin Dais-Pasley provides 7 game-changing ways women can disconnect from the constant noise, and ignite the power of silence and seclusion in their lives. And what results is more powerful prayer and worship life, and a more purpose-filled future. "Silence is a Gamechanger" is the driving force women need to discover their divine purpose - at any age, and in any circumstance!
