DESIGN CONSIDERATIONS FOR CUSTOM JEWELLERY

It is helpful to consider a few factors prior to arranging a design or restyling consultation. This will help our jewelers best service you and reduce both the design fees and timing.

Type of Jewellery

Ring

Necklace

Bracelet

Earrings

Once you know what type of jewelry that you would like then consider what specific style appeals to you. We recommend looking on the internet and saving picture of designs that attract you. We can then discuss what the common thread is in those picture to greatly reduce the design time.
