- Location: Remote video conferencing (Zoom Video Communications)
- Call to Order: 7:33 PM
- Board Members in Attendance: Cindy Marshall, Michelle Sires-DeLorean, Judy Ahlborn, Steve Begej
- Other KCAG Members Present: Beverly Gould, Laura Reagan
- Approval of Minutes:
- Financial Report:
 - Renewed website domain $ 21.07
 - Bank account balance $ 961.40
- Next Meeting Date: Thursday, April 15, 2021, at 7:30PM via Zoom Video Conference, details TBA.

Agenda:

- Call to Order
- Status of the 2020 KCAG Virtual Art Show
 - The virtual show is over, but Judy will add a link to the exhibit (and to future virtual exhibits) on the KCAG website for archival purposes.
- Mineral Street Show for KCAG Members
 - The current show at 1101 W. Mineral St. in Littleton will end on Thursday, January 14, and participating artists need to pick up their works on that day from 10:00AM to Noon. There was reported to be some interest in sales, but none were completed.
 - A Google Gdrive folder containing general images of the hung show and its layout was made available the following shared link:
<https://drive.google.com/drive/folders/1Hu3YagRBowJ1KDxl1gU85s19gkl7lbij?usp=sharing>
 - Cindy reported that she will be participating in a two-person show at the same venue titled "Two Friends in a Pandemic" that will run for the next 45 days.
- Virtual Christmas Party
 - The Zoom virtual Christmas Party on Tuesday, December 15, was well attended.
 - Donated art supplies for aspiring art students were collected at Cindy's, and subsequently delivered by Steve McCall.
- Virtual Art Show for Students

- After discussion, it was decided that entrants would be limited to high school aged students living in the various Ken Caryl areas (Valley, Ranch, and Plains). Middle school students were also considered for inclusion, but would require a separate category and judging, and could result in an excessively large and lengthy exhibit. They will be considered again in the future depending on the experiences and outcome of a more limited and conservative effort with just high school students.
 - The title of the show will be “2021 KCAG Virtual Juried Teen Art Show”
 - The entries will be judged (tentative jurors: Cindy, Bruce, and Judy)
 - All media is acceptable except videography
 - 1 - 3 entries (1 image per work).
 - Artwork will not be available for sale
 - No entry fee
 - Show timeline:
 - Call opens: February 3
 - Call deadline for entries: March 3
 - Jurying and notifications: March 4 to March 17
 - Virtual show creation: March 18 to March 30
 - Show dates: March 31 to April 30
 - Advertising will be done through a number of media:
 - Notices in The Life at Ken Caryl newspaper (Michele)
 - Contacting art teachers at Chatfield and Dakota Ridge (Would such contact create issues regarding non-Ken Caryl resident students who also attend art classes in these schools???)
 - Event notices in the NextDoor neighborhood bulletin board (Steve Begej)
 - Award ribbons will be given to 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place winners (Cindy), along with a spotlight piece regarding these artists in The Life at Ken Caryl newspaper (Michele).
- Other KCAG Art Shows
 - Cindy has tentatively reserved a spot for KCAG artists in the Columbine Library in 2022, the exact date TBD and depending on circumstances at that time.

Future Meetings

- The next meeting was set for Thursday, April 15, 2021, at 7:30PM via Zoom video conferencing. Details TBA.

Adjournment

- The video meeting ended at 8:29PM.
