NATIONAL MOBILIZATION AGAINST POLICE BRUTALITY AND THE FRATERNAL ORDER OF POLICE (FOP)

As we pursue the ideal goal of 'Community-Control of the Police', the National Mobilization Against Police Brutality & the Fraternal Order of Police (FOP) also propose the following interim reforms:

1. Mandatory cultural sensitivity training for all new and veteran police officers.
2. Intense psychological evaluations for all officers, especially those returning from military service.
3. Legislation creating a National Civilian-Police Review Board.
4. Universal drug-testing for any police officer who discharges his/her weapon while in the performance of duty.
5. Mandatory reporting for all stop, frisk, arrest and/or civilian confrontations.
6. Mandatory body-cameras for all police officers.
7. Mandatory dash-board cameras for all police vehicles, including transport vans.
8. We advocate & support local legislation which prohibits local police from acting as immigration enforcement officers.
9. We advocate & support legislation which guarantees full & public disclosure of any police officers prior employment history, including complaints and disciplinary actions resulting from all allegations and/or findings of police misconduct.

No one, not even police officers and/or members of the Fraternal Order of Police (FOP) should be exempt from accountability and prosecution regarding criminal misconduct.

Sincerely,

National Mobilization Against Police Brutality and the FOP

All Power To The People!

THE TIME IS NOW:

During the last fifty years, the Democrat and Republican parties have failed to address and remedy the systemic and structural inequalities that impact the lives of Black/New Afrikan people. Both the Democratic and Republican leadership avoid and/or marginalize serious national discussion regarding dismantling White supremacy, institutional racism and the plight of Blacks/New Afrikans, especially the urban poor and working class.

The New Afrikan Independence Party (NAIP) is committed to the pursuit of social justice, human rights and self/group determination for Black/New Afrikan people. We call for a revolutionary and radical reconstruction of the economic, political and social structures and institutions that impact our lives.

The NAIP will embrace the best ideals, ideas and practices of the Civil Rights, Black Power, Black Liberation, Pan-Africanist and other movements for independence and self/group determination.

The NAIP will also embrace the best ideals and practices of contemporary activists, organizers and movements for social change and radical reconstruction.

SISTERS ARE DOING IT FOR THEMSELVES

In today's political and social climate its important for Black/New Afrikan women to be educated, trained and organized in ways and methods of self-defense. Obtaining gun permits and attending classes on gun safety and operations is a major step toward achieving that goal.

Statement for the New Afrikan/Black Unity & Solidarity Conference

I want to first express my gratitude for being invited to participate in this New African/Black Unity and Solidarity Conference. Unfortunately, I am not able to participate in this conference in person, but in lieu of attending this conference I have prepared this short statement regarding some of the liberation struggles which have been taking place in Africa in recent years. In my view, the struggles of Africans in the United States are linked to the struggles in Africa, although our enemies have worked very hard to keep us separated from each other.

We must always remember that the same forces which oppress our people in the United States also oppress our people on the continent. Many of the oppressive regimes in Africa benefit from the financial and military support which they receive from the government of the United States. Money and resources which could be invested in African communities across the United States instead goes to supporting brutal dictators like Faure Gnassingbe of Togo, who uses his security forces to torture and kill his own citizens. American money and resources go towards waging a military campaign in Somalia which entails drone strikes that kill innocent Somalis, further destabilizing a nation that has struggled with instability and disunity since its inception. As the United States bombs our brothers and sisters in Somalia, we have brothers and sisters across this nation which are living in abject poverty and neglect. I want to start by making this connection clear to demonstrate that as African people we are struggling against the same forces on both sides of the Atlantic.

The struggle for liberation is being waged in Africa, although these struggles have not received very much attention from the American media. This is done because of the American media's general disinterest in Africa affairs, but there are struggles for liberation which are being waged in Africa and these struggles have led to some important political changes. In 2014, the people of Burkina Faso rose up and drove Blaise Compaoré from power. Compaoré was the man who was responsible for murdering Thomas Sankara. At the time that he was overthrown, Compaoré was also supported by the governments of the United States and France. Compaoré was little more than a neo-colonial puppet who was willing to murder his friend to serve the interests of his Western masters.

In 2015, the people of Gambia rose up and managed to force Yahya Jammeh from power following a very contentious election. Jammeh seized power in a coup in 1994 and held on to power until 2015. Even after he lost the election, he refused to concede and had to be removed from power by force. Jammeh was yet another American supported dictator.

This was a small victory, but the struggle to liberate Togo remains ongoing. In the Sudan, protesters were able to finally put an end to Omar al-Bashir's 30-year dictatorship after massive protests.

'AFRIKAN LIBERATION STRUGGLES: COMMENTARY AND UPDATE' (CONTINUED)

Guinea has experienced unrest as well after Alpha Conde moved to give himself a third term in power, which was a violation of Guinea's constitution. Guinea is a nation which has struggled with dictatorship, military suppression, and coups in the past. Ever since Guinea became independent from France in 1958, there has been a continuous effort to destabilize Guinea as a form of punishment for daring to take a stand against French colonial domination. Conde sent soldiers out to attack and even kill those who were protesting Conde's third term. Some activists were even kidnapped as well. Members of the military eventually decided to seize power for themselves.

This is a brief overview of just some of the struggles for liberation which have been waged in Africa in recent years. The American media has not reported very much on these events, but what is taking place in Africa is significant because it demonstrates that our brothers and sisters on the continent are rising up to challenge these Western backed dictatorial regimes. Some progress has been made, but there is still much more that needs to be done. Even so, I think those of us in the United States can draw strength and inspiration from what our brothers and sisters on the continent have been able to do. Thank you for your time and I close with a quote from Malcolm X about the importance of recognizing the connection between the African struggle in the United States and the struggle on the continent: "I, for one, would like to impress, especially upon those who call themselves leaders, the importance of realizing the direct connection between the struggle of the Afro-American in this country and the struggle of our people all over the world. As long as we think...that we should get Mississippi straightened out before we worry about the Congo, you'll never get Mississippi straightened out. Not until you start realizing your connection with the Congo".
