

Let me share a dream I had with you. In the dream I was sitting on my front porch and across the street was a field. In the field was a huge awesome storm, a tornado, just sitting there spinning. In front of my house there was a multitude of people walking up and down the sidewalk. Men, women and children, mothers pushing their babies in strollers and folks of every nationality. Then suddenly they noticed the storm and appeared curious and started to walk towards the storm. Myself, being from Oklahoma knew what a tornado of that size could do to a person. Out of panic I jumped up and started running and screaming for them to stop. Hollering "STOP! STOP! STOP! that storm will kill you." Then I woke up and the Lord said to me, "Warn the people, a terrible storm is coming."

"There is a way that seems right unto man but the end thereof are the ways of death."
 "And as it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment." The choice is yours, you can either bear your own sins in eternity in the lake of fire (hell). "And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire." Or you can allow Christ to bear your sins on the cross. The way to salvation is; "That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved."
 Come to see me and let me know of your decision, or call me and leave a message.
