

Most Gracious Sovereign:

I, _____ your Majesty's faithful subject of _____ in the county of _____ together with diverse other faithful subjects who write in like mind, beg leave to lay our Grievances jointly and severally before the Throne:

- Whereas the current parliament has formed a Government that represents less than one in five of the subjects which are electors.
- And said Government has through the courts caused diverse persons to be subject to excessive fines and imprisonment out of proportion to offences committed
- And diverse foreign persons have taken jurisdictions temporal and ecclesiastical or spiritual contrary to law
- And the Prime Minister has declared the raising of a Standing Army from the police by Royal Prerogative without the consent of parliament.
- And commerce has been burthened with many useless and oppressive restrictions.
- And Your Government is negotiating to hand over British Sovereign Territory Overseas to foreign powers
- And taxation has become excessive causing poverty among your subjects.
- And your Government has allowed large numbers of foreign persons to enter the country and housed and fed them at the expense of your loyal subjects.

Thanks be to God, we were born the heirs of freedom, and ever enjoyed our right under the auspices of your Royal ancestors, whose family was seated on the British Throne to rescue and secure a pious and gallant Nation from the despotism of tyrants. Your Majesty, we are confident, justly rejoices that your title to the Crown is thus founded on the title of your people to liberty; and, therefore, we doubt not but your royal wisdom must approve the sensibility that teaches your subjects anxiously to guard the blessing of freedom.

Your Royal indignation, we hope, will fall on those designing and dangerous persons of the current and previous Government, who, daringly interposing themselves between your Royal person and your faithful subjects, having for several years past incessantly employed to dissolve the bonds of society, by abusing your Majesty's authority, misrepresenting your native British subjects, and prosecuting the most desperate and irritating projects of oppression, have at length compelled us, by the force of accumulated injuries, too severe to be any longer tolerable, to disturb your Majesty's repose by our complaints.

We hereby do humbly petition your Gracious Majesty to dissolve this current parliament of designing and dangerous persons such that a new parliament be elected that shall represent your loyal subjects' reasonable wishes more closely.

Signed
