CYNTHIA DRATTER is a pioneer in the executive coaching industry and founder of Dratter Consultants, a highly esteemed coaching service for C-level and senior leaders in higher education. Recognized for her comprehensive leadership training programs, Cynthia was named one of the most influential people in 2019 by Education Forward.

Before launching Dratter Consultants in 2009, Cynthia held numerous leadership roles, including President of The New Workforce in Toledo, OH, and Senior Vice President of Global Talent at Hub Consultants Inc., a Fortune 100 company. In these roles, Ms. Dratter led and executed a pragmatic and strategic plan that delivered $25M in annual growth and was the driving force in developing an internal training program to cultivate the next generation of leaders. Cynthia is the co-founder of ProExec., an online members-only community fostering leadership and continuous learning.

Cynthia is the author of 11 books on executive leadership, including the New York Times bestseller, Women Leading With Intention. She is an adjunct lecturer at Peale University MBA Executive Program and speaker on TEDX TALKS. WATCH HER MOST RECENT PRESENTATION.
