P.S. 277 DR. EVELINA ANTONETTY VISION, MISSION, & GOALS

P.S. 277 Vision

Our role as a community is to nourish, strengthen and empower the character, mind and voice of our children in order to cultivate future leaders and thinkers in our school, in our community and in our world. Together we will build a sense of social responsibility, self-efficacy, and self-confidence in order to prepare for college and future careers.

P.S. 277 Mission

Our mission is to provide a robust, holistic educational experience that will empower scholars to become future leaders.

P.S. 277 Instructional Focus

Improving Literacy Instruction by:

Data Driven Reading Instruction

Culture for Adult Learning

Strategic Implementation of Balanced Literacy

By June 2019, 70% of students in each grade will increase three or more reading levels demonstrating growth as per Fountas & Pinnell.	By June 2019, teachers will engage students in reflective questioning regarding social and emotional skills through Morning Meetings and the 7 Habits of Happy Kids, to increase social and emotional support for students resulting in a 15% decrease in teacher referrals and OORS reports.	By June 2019, every grade team will engage in monthly cycles of learning using inter-visitations to showcase researched based best practices with formative assessment as evidenced by an average of at least 60% of students moving up three Fountas and Pinnell reading levels.	By June 2019, school administrators will engage all teachers in a book study and differentiated cycles of PD focused on assessment in instruction, that will result in 20% improvement in teacher ratings for Danielson Framework component 3D composite score.	By June 2019, the school leader in collaboration with teachers will establish an effective system of reciprocal communication to families that will result in a 3% increase in positive responses in the Outreach to Parents section of NYC School Survey.
