Jesse Captures the PinSeekers Championship

Jesse Hudson put the finishing touch on what will be remembered as one of the most remarkable seasons in PinSeekers history. Entering the year with a modest handicap and consistently facing off against the club's very best players, he delivered a season defined by grit, consistency, and championship-level composure. The highlight came in the club championship where, starting from an 8-stroke deficit, he methodically worked his way back into contention by the end of the front 9 holes. There were no dazzling streaks of six birdies in a single round this time—just steady, calculated golf. His poised play produced a 73, the number that ultimately crowned him the PinSeekers Club Champion.

What made Jesse's season even more impressive was his relentless presence across every major event. Whether it was clinching titles in match play, making deep runs in majors, or continually posting scores that forced competitors to raise their games, Jesse was always on the board and always in the hunt. He set the tone early, sustained it through the toughest stretches of the season, and closed it out like a true champion.

In a year full of storylines, Jesse's journey stood out not because of one heroic round, but because week after week, he proved that consistency and determination outpace flash, a sign of a champion. The 2025 campaign etched his name firmly into the PinSeekers legacy—champion, competitor, and the standard by which future seasons will be measured. Jesse bought everyone a drink to celebrate his achievement, thanks Jesse!

Golfers with Multiple Birdies

- 3 - Sheridan
- 2 - Burnett

Mike Sheridan emerged as last week's top money winner, pocketing a hefty $333 for his stellar play. He found another gear in the middle of his round, starting on the 6th hole where he calmly drained an 8-foot putt for birdie. The momentum carried over to the 7th, where he rolled in another birdie on what turned out to be his designated birdie hole. The streak didn't stop there; on the 8th, with a little help from Dave Wesen who putted first and revealed the perfect line, Mike confidently dropped a third straight birdie.

Two of those birdies turned into scratch (gross) skin wins, and his hot hand extended to the par-3s, where he posted his name on three holes and converted two of them into winners. Way to go Mike, and thanks for buying everyone a drink!

Shamble Format

Sunday the event will be a team Shamble format. Cost for the event is $20. Rules below:

1. Teams will be picked to ensure fairness across the club.
2. Tee Shots: all players on the team hit their drives from the tee box
3. Best Drive Selection: the team selects the best drive among the four tee shots
4. Individual play: each player then plays their next shot from the position of the chosen best ball, playing their own ball to the hole.
5. For the team score:
 - The best low net score on the first 6 holes
 - The best 2 low net scores on the second 6 holes
 - The best 3 low net scores on the last 6 holes

Incentives for the Shamble will be:

- Lowest top 2 scores
- Par 3 proxs
- Longest putt
