Handicap Special for Jibber

Jibber dominated last week's competition, claiming the lion's share of incentives with $156 in winnings-primarily from two handicap skins. While he capitalized on standout performances on the 9th and 10th holes, his longest putt of the day further sealed his success. His impressive 77 net score (yes, 77 net) proved pivotal, propelling his team to a 5-stroke victory in the partner event.

Peyton Silver, the club's new 19-year-old member, emerged as the second-highest earner with $92, thanks to a scratch skin win and shared event winnings with Jibber. (A word of caution: don't ask Peyton to buy a round-Deer Creek might struggle serving someone underage.) His arrival, alongside other young talents like Justin, Gage and Liam, has injected fresh energy into the Club.

Ben Collins rounded out the top three, pocketing $82 despite an early exit. His haul included two scratch skins and a handicap skin, proving that even a quick exit doesn't signify a bad round.

Incentive Changes

Did you hear . . .

Joe Jasinski encountered a puzzling issue with his electric cart last week. On the 12th hole, we saw Joe riding in a gas cart instead. It turned out that, at the time, only one wheel on his electric cart was working while the other remained motionless. However, by the time he returned to the clubhouse, both wheels were functioning normally again. Maybe Joe just needed a break or his cart was just as worn out as he was.

While playing the 16th hole, Jibber stepped out of his cart to take his second shot, but an irate goose wasn't pleased with his presence. The goose hovered aggressively over the cart, blocking Jibber from getting back in. To help, someone distracted the goose, allowing Jibber to sneak into the cart and hit the gas pedal to make a quick getaway.
