Rain Comes and Goes, Golfers Shine

On a day when morning weather forced a delay, the Club adhered to protocol by waiting up to two hours for conditions to improve. Fortunately, the rain subsided just in time for golfers to tee off before 9:00 AM. Despite the damp start, one group even managed to finish in under four hours.

Some players were able to capitalize on the challenging weather. Jesse Hudson, Mark Klippenstein, and Jibber emerged with the top scores of the day—as is often the case, they also claimed the majority of the prize money.

Jesse Hudson delivered another consistent performance, carding three birdies—including one on his designated birdie hole. He swept two gross skins, one net skin, a closest-to-the-pin (prox) prize, and the partner event alongside Mark Klippenstein, adding a hefty $209 to his season earnings.

Mark Klippenstein was close behind, earning $164. His winnings included a Major 3 victory ($100), two gross skins, three net skins, and a share of the partner event with Jesse.

Jibber completed the trio of top earners, pocketing $123 thanks to his Major 3 win, two net skins, and a prox.

In the Hogan division, although Scott Blackwood topped the standings and will receive first-place points, Juan Urbina will take home the prize money as the highest-finishing player playing on the day of the tournament.

This event highlights how challenging weather can provide new opportunities in competitive golf—and how quick adaptation and steady play can lead to success, both on the scoreboard and in the prize fund.

Multiple Birdie Shooters

- 3 - Hudson, Klippenstein

Major #3 Winners

Last week was the third major tournament of the year - low net tournament. If you pre-golfed or called in / visited the clubhouse and let the Officers know you were not playing, you received a pre-golf score (worst of your last 3). Otherwise, if you did not inform the Club you are not playing, you will not receive a pre-golf score in accordance to club rules outlined during the season kick off.

- Hogan - Blackwood
- Nicklaus - Klippenstein
- Woods - D Grzyb

Major #4 Begins

This is a multi-week head-to-head elimination Division tournament. This is pure match play using the difference of handicap, where you must win more holes than your opponent to win the match. Additionally, you will play in the same group as your opponent. Brackets are based on standings within your division based on player of the year points - top point holder in the division is #1 seed and #2 is the second highest seed in the division and continually seeding remaining players. See page 5 for brackets.

Weekend Outing

Payments are due for the weekend outing no later than this coming Sunday. Ed is required to generate a room list for the hotel as well as ensure we release any tee times we are not going to use back to the respective golf courses in the coming days.
