Hudson on Fire

Jesse Hudson turned in the round of the year on a rain-soaked course, firing a sparkling 69, the lowest gross score posted all season. Jesse came out hot with a 3-under-par front nine, then held steady with an even-par back nine to secure top honors for the week despite the challenging wet conditions.

His strong play paid off across the board. In addition to the weekly victory, Jesse collected three gross skins, one handicap skin, a proximity prize, and his birdie hole.

The performance also gave Jesse an early statement win in Week 1 of the playoffs. With the victory and a big points boost, Jesse has climbed into third place in the Player of the Year standings, putting himself squarely in the championship conversation as the postseason continues.

Playoffs - August 30th

This 4 week, end-of-season tournament will determine the Club's Player of the Year. This prestigious award includes a Deer Creek walking membership.

To qualify for the playoffs, players must have at least 13 posted rounds, including the first week of the playoff tournament. Those not qualifying for the playoffs are still playing for incentives and the weekly event.

Sean O'Meter — all good things must eventually come to an end. This week, new member Sean Sheridan's impressive streak of cashing in finally came to a close, proving that even the hottest run on the course can cool off eventually. It was Sean's first taste of heading home without a little extra cash in his wallet. A real Sheridan trait, just ask Mike!
