Trujillo Triumphs in PinSeekers Debut

Will Trujillo made an unforgettable debut at the PinSeekers weekend outing, accomplishing something few players have managed: capturing the overall championship.

Entering the weekend with no prior experience on any of the courses, Will faced an immediate challenge. But he stayed patient, played steady golf, and kept himself within striking distance. After Round 1, he sat in fifth place, well positioned, but with work still to do.

Will found another gear on Saturday, posting an impressive under-par net round that vaulted him into third place in the standings. Although he was not thrilled to be placed in the next-to-last group, despite having enough points to be in the final group, the pairing may ultimately have worked in his favor. It gave him the opportunity to focus on his own game and apply pressure from just ahead of the leaders.

Then came Sunday. On the outing's most difficult course, Will delivered the second-lowest net score, a clutch performance that proved to be the difference. That timely finish propelled him to the top of the leaderboard and secured the title of PinSeekers weekend outing champion.

Weekend Outing Thank Yous

- Ed Klopp - Mr Everything for the PinSeekers outing. From securing lodging / golf tee times / food and just about everything else, thank you for your time and dedication to making this a success.
- Jesse Hudson - scramble master
- Mike Sheridan - Cal Basa ninja

- Greg Fricks - jumped in an assisted where needed and closed up shop every night
- Dave Wesen - scorekeeping
