The Other Sheridan Cashes In

Mike Sheridan finally rose to the occasion and accomplished what his brother Sean has made look easy all season: putting together a winning day. Mike converted on his birdie hole at No. 10 and finished among the week's top money winners. Unfortunately, his birdie was matched by another player, so it was not enough to claim either a scratch or handicap skin, but it was still a strong showing and a well-earned trip to the winner's circle.

Jibber joined Mike as the other big winner of the week, turning in one of his best rounds of the season. Apparently, a little time away from Sunday golf has its benefits, although Jibber has spent plenty of those Sundays building up his bankroll with overtime shifts. He put that extra cash to good use, winning two handicap skins, the long-putt, and the partner event.

Playoffs

There are 2 weeks left in the playoffs with this week giving someone the opportunity to win 280 points and jump up the leaderboard.

The following week, the playoffs will use a format similar to the former PGA Tour FedExCup starting-strokes system.

The golfer who finishes first in the Player of the Year points standings at the end of this week will begin the final round (next week) at 10 under par. The remaining golfers in the top 10 will also receive starting strokes based on their final position in the standings:

- 2nd place: starts at 9 under par
- 3rd place: starts at 8 under par
- This pattern continues through 10th place
- All golfers outside the top 10 will start at even par, with no negative strokes

At the end of the round, each golfer's net score will be combined with their assigned starting score. The golfer with the lowest final adjusted score will be named Player of the Year.

Sean O'Meter — back on the board as Sean won a handicap skin on the 6th hole. I think this is 12 for 13 cashing in. Maybe more than brother Mike has done in the past 2 years combined.

Did you here that . . . Jim Such faded his tee shot on the 11th hole onto the 15th tee box. He hit an awesome shot onto the green and was putting for a birdie. Unfortunately, Jim was playing the wrong green (14th) and needed to realign his focus and another shot to the 11th green.

Sometimes, even a nice cold beer can't cheer you up after a bad round.
