When the Course Gives, Ben Takes

Last Sunday delivered one of those rare, near-perfect golf days, the kind you hope for all season. Clear skies, barely a whisper of wind, and just enough warmth to keep everything loose and rolling. The course played fair, and the scores reflected it. No one capitalized more than Ben Collin.

Ben came out dialed in, taking full advantage of the conditions. He cashed in on the multi-week birdie hole carryover and he didn't stop there, carding four birdies on the day. Three of those claimed scratch honors, while two also paid out on the net side, a clean sweep that had his name all over the board taking home $475.

Ben turned his hot round into a celebration, lining up buckets of beer for the group. It was equal parts victory lap and shared moment, a fitting end to a day when everything seemed to click.

Incentive Changes

If you want to cash in like Ben, the next incentive change is scheduled for the July 12th round. You may contact me anytime before that date to ensure your participation in the incentives.

The Eagle Has Landed

The second big winner of the day was Kyle Carpenter, who delivered an eagle on the demanding 15th.

After launching a booming drive that split the fairway, Kyle was left with 175 yards into the green. He stepped into his approach and struck it pure. The ball landed softly and settled just eight feet from the hole, setting up a real chance.

With the group watching, Kyle took his time, read the line, and rolled it with confidence. Dead center. No doubt. Everyone on the course could hear the group celebrating Kyles eagle.

Kyle scooped the eagle pool, added a scratch skin, a net skin, and grabbed the prox on 17 for good measure. A full haul and a not-so-subtle reminder to everyone else that the eagle pool just got reset. Time to pony up another $10.

Welcome

Welcome new member John Jez to the Club from the Saturday Men's Club league.

Major #1

The first major tournament is nearing its conclusion, with just two weeks left on the schedule. The format takes each player's best four rounds out of a seven-round stretch, keeping the leaderboard wide open down the stretch.

Incentive Changes

The next incentive change is for the July 12th round. You may contact me anytime before that date to ensure your participation in the incentives.

Did You Hear That . . .

Michael Strama posted his lowest round of the year and is starting to feel the grove while getting comfortable with Deer Creek. He joined another new member, Todd Lamparelli Jr, in posting one of the lowest net rounds of the week with a net 69. Way to go guys! Sandbagger Kerwin Laurie posted the low net round of a 64, vaulting him to the top of his division in Major #1.
