Early Birdies Lead to Big Payouts

Two fortunate members cashed in on the multi-week birdie hole carryover last week, turning timely shot-making into a well-earned payday. Mike Opat and Travis Robison rose to the occasion when it mattered most, each delivering clutch performances under pressure.

Mike wasted no time making his mark, carding a birdie on the opening hole and setting the tone right out of the gate. Travis followed shortly after, answering with a birdie of his own on the third hole to claim his share of the prize. When the dust settled, both players walked away with $152 each, a rewarding finish after weeks of buildup.

Mike didn't stop there. Teaming up with Jesse Hudson, he carried that momentum into the team event, helping secure a first-place finish. In a tightly contested field, three teams posted matching scores of 71, but Mike and Jesse prevailed on a tiebreaker that stretched all the way back to the 14th hole. The victory added another $65 to Mike's total, capping off an impressive and profitable round.

Mike and Travis celebrated their good fortunes by buying a round of drinks for Club members - thank you guys!

Major #4 Upsets and Close Calls

There were plenty of standout moments and a few surprises during the opening week of Tournament #4, King of the Hill. Several players stepped up with strong performances, setting the tone for a competitive bracket.

- Sean Sheridan delivered one of the highlights of the week, knocking off Dave Wesen with what he described as his best 18-hole round to date. Sean kept his round clean and consistent, avoiding penalties and playing controlled golf throughout. The defining moment came on the 16th and 17th holes, where he avoided the water with his wayward tee shots. He also converted a clutch up-and-down for par to secure the victory on the 17th hole. To show how well Sean golfed, Dave posted one of his best rounds of the season with an 81.

- In another matchup, John Jez came out on top against Ben Collin. Both players posted strong pre-golf scores, but John managed to edge ahead, doing just enough to advance in a tightly contested round.
- Al Miller survived a close call against Jim Such as each member won 7 holes and they needed a 4 hole tie breaker to determine the winner.
- Patrick Nolan faced a unique challenge, competing against a pre-golf score posted by his brother-in-law, Mike Sheridan. Heading to the 18th hole, Patrick trailed by one, but a win on the final hole would have forced a tie, one he was positioned to win on a tiebreaker. With everything on the line, Patrick's tee shot found the fairway bunker. Sensing an opportunity, especially with the hole also designated as his birdie hole, he went for the green in two. However, the aggressive play didn't pay off, as his shot caught the lip of the bunker. The miscue ultimately led to a loss in what had been a tightly contested match on the back nine.

Match Play

This Sunday marks the final day of Match Play. Pairings will be set based on the current standings, with the #1 player in each division facing the #2 player. This format sets up a true showdown, giving every top contender a chance to win their division.
