Caleb Dominates Weekly Win

Caleb Warner emerged as the top winner of the week, earning $66 from the incentive pool. He achieved this by winning two scratch/gross skins, the closest-to-the-pin (prox) contest, and the longest putt on the 9th hole, all while posting an impressive even-par 72. His three birdies on Sunday were each converted into skins.

Notably, Caleb brought a caddie to learn how to assist him in preparation for an upcoming tournament. However, after deliberation and much debate, the PinSeekers Board of Directors has decided to ban caddies from assisting golfers during club events. The Board concluded that having a caddie—especially for reading putts—provides an advantage over other club members. This new policy aims to maintain a level playing field for all competitors.

From Early Struggles to Big Win

Al Miller claimed the second-highest payout of the week, earning $64 while playing from the white tees. After a challenging start to the season, Al's perseverance paid off as he secured a scratch/gross skin and emerged as one of the winners in the partner tournament.

Timely Change

Mark Klippenstein, a new member, secured the third-highest winnings of the week with a $52 payout. His timely decision to adjust his incentives before Sunday's round—removing the birdie hole and opting into other incentives—proved decisive, allowing him to claim a scratch/gross skin and two handicap/net skins.

3-Man Partner Event

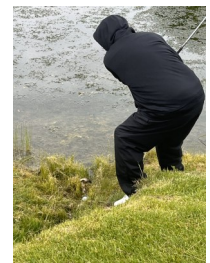

With warmer weather and returning out-of-towners, we're expecting a full field of golfers this week. The partner event will follow a "one, two, three" format: use the lowest net score on holes 1, 4, 7, 10, 13, and 16; the two lowest net scores on holes 2, 5, 8, 11, 14, and 17; and all three net scores on holes 3, 6, 9, 12, 15, and 19.

Did you hear . . .

It was a day of mixed fortunes for newcomer Mike Lynch. After finishing his round, Mike realized his wallet was missing. His riding partner, Fricks, recalled seeing the wallet left on the seat at the 16th hole. Mike retraced his steps, and after four groups had played through, he found his wallet still sitting in the middle of the fairway. Perhaps this says something about the PinSeekers' tee shots—was no one finding the fairway that day?

Everyone joked about Juan marking his tee shot on the 17th hole, which was an unimpressive 61 feet from the pin. Surprisingly, he ended up winning that closest-to-the-pin (prox) contest. This contrasts with his prox attempt on the 8th hole, where his shot was 59 feet from the hole but did not secure a win.
