Jez Makes Comeback Count

John Jez made a welcome return to the course with plenty of game in his bag. He carded three birdies on the day, collecting skins on two of them, adding a prox, and, along with some timely help from Mike Lappin, helping his team capture the team event as well.

Ed Klopp gave the group plenty to talk about with a terrific tee shot on #8 that left him a near kick-in for birdie. The putt just slipped by on the low side, but Ed did not let that missed opportunity linger for long. On his birdie hole (#12), he answered in a big way by pouring in a clutch 30-footer for birdie, an impressive redemption that earned him the week's second top winner of the week.

Sean Sheridan has made it clear that he is not content to share the spotlight with brother Mike, at least not when the weekly incentives are on the line. Since joining the club, Sean has found a way to cash in every single week he has played, whether it is by grabbing a prox, taking home a skin, or landing on the winning team.

The Sean O'Meter run now stands at 11 consecutive weeks with an incentive payout, making Sean one of the club's most consistent weekly winners and giving him plenty of bragging rights in the Sheridan family.

Great News

Last week marked an encouraging new chapter in Mike Holstrom's recovery as he returned to the course for a round with the Club. Carrying 75 pounds less and showing real determination, Mike worked his way around the course to post a 95, an impressive milestone given his journey.

Mike also added six golf balls to his ever-growing collection. Welcome back, Mike. It is great to see you back with the group, enjoying the game and continuing your journey toward better health.

Major #4

The championships concluded last week with the following results and each winner receiving 140 points and $100 for their efforts:

- Trujillo over Carbone - 5 and 4
- Urbina over Lappin - 6 and 4
- Jasinski over Miller - 1 up

Match Play Championships

Match play concluded with Dave Wesen winning the championship 4 and 3 over Mike Lappin. Mike had a tall task playing both the match play and major #4 championships and took an early lead over Dave going 1 up on the front nine. However, Dave put together a stunning one under round on the back for holes 10 through 15, closing out the match before the 16th hole. All those qualifying for the match play championships receive 50 points with the winner receiving an extra 100 points and $100.

Playoffs - August 30th

This 4 week, end-of-season tournament will determine the Club's Player of the Year. This prestigious award includes a Deer Creek walking membership.

To qualify for the playoffs, players must have at least 13 posted rounds, including the first week of the playoff tournament. In other words, if you currently have 12 rounds posted, playing next Sunday will give you the 13th round needed to qualify.
