Strong Performance and Bold Claims

A pair of standout performances came from Joe Jasinski and Todd Lamparelli, who delivered one of the best rounds of the day in the Hogan Division. Joe recorded the second-lowest gross score, while Todd matched him with the second-lowest net score, an impressive combination that secured the win for their team. Todd added three birdies to the card, while Joe contributed two of his own, capping off a well-rounded performance. It is especially encouraging to see Todd's handicap now catching up to the level of play he has been showing on the course.

Ed Klopp proved that consistency can carry the day, even without a partner present. Playing solo with Joe Madden as his partner, Ed managed to capture the Nicklaus Division title for Major Event #2. His steady play, combined with careful tracking of Joe's previous results, gave the team just enough to edge out the competition and secure the win. Reminder, for those who do not play on the day of the tournament, you only win player of the year points, no money.

Confidence and a bit of bold talk set the tone before the tournament even began for the Hogan Division. On the tee box, Will Trujillo reminded everyone that he and Sheridan were 5-0 in Ryder Cup play last year. That claim raised some eyebrows, especially after Mike stumbled with a 9 on the second hole, leaving many doubtful of their chances. However, Will backed up his words in a big way, delivering a dominant performance that carried the team to a Hogan Division victory. To Mike's credit, he contributed on two holes, but the day largely belonged to Will. With the win secured, Will can now proudly update that record to 6-0 the next time he and Sheridan tee it up together.

Golfers with Multiple Birdies

- 3 - T Lamparelli
- 2 - Jasinski, Miller

Call In Absence

All members are required to text their intentions when not playing. If you are not complying to this rule, that is why you no longer have a tee time.

Weekly Event

The team event this week is a three man event

- Lowest net score on the first 6 holes
- Lowest 2 net scores on the next 6 holes
- All net scores on the last 6 holes.

Incentive Changes

The next incentive change is July 12. You may contact me anytime before that date to ensure your participation for the next change.

Did you hear that . . .

Justin Grzyb made his season debut and delivered one of the more unforgettable moments of the round. On the 5th hole, needing to clear a tree to reach the green, Justin's shot went straight into a tree and unfortunately struck a bird. The bird tumbled out of the tree in dramatic fashion, creating a scene no one expected to witness. As for the scorecard, that ended up being Justin's only "birdie" of the day.

After handicaps were recalculated from last week's results, Mike Sheridan walked away with a couple of surprises. First, he and Will Trujillo captured the Major in their division. Second, Mike's play earned him a move from the blue tees up to the white tees. It seems that last week's "strategic scoring" worked out quite well in his favor.
