New Faces at the Top

A couple of new names climbed into the top of the money list last week, and none more impressively than Ken Burnett. Ken seems to have found his stride in the summer heat, embracing the warm conditions with a game to match. With confidence rolling and the putter cooperating, he delivered one of the standout rounds of the week.

His strong play didn't just pad his own wallet, it powered his team (Joe Jasinski and Pete Paulos) to victory in the 3-man event, where consistent shot-making and timely execution made all the difference. Ken wasn't done there. He dialed in a clutch tee shot on the notoriously difficult 17th, sticking it close to secure a prox and add even more to his weekly haul.

All in all, it was a statement performance from Ken, who made it clear he's going to be a factor as the summer season heats up.

Patrick Nolan was the other big winner of the week, putting on an absolute clinic with the irons. In a performance that doesn't come around often, especially with a full field competing, Patrick captured an incredible 3 of the 4 available proxes prizes during the round.

Time after time, he stepped up and fired laser-focused approach shots that left the rest of the field shaking their heads. Whether it was dialed in distance control or just being locked into a groove, Patrick made it look routine on holes where most are just hoping to find the green.

Fortunately for everyone else, Patrick is taking next week off, opening the door for the rest of the field to finally have a fighting chance at a prox.

Welcome

Welcome to the club, Sean Sheridan, who officially made his debut last week, thanks in large part to the recruiting efforts (and likely some persistent nudging) from his brother Mike and brother-in-law Patrick. With those two in his corner, it's safe to say Sean won't have any trouble joining in on a little friendly stirring now and then.

Golfers with Multiple Birdies

- 2 - Opat, Verbiscer

Major #1

The first major tournament is nearing its conclusion, this coming Sunday, one week later due to a rainout on week 12. You must play to post a score.

Major #3

One day tournament where the lowest net score within the Division wins the tourney. There will be an extra $5 required for the event with a chance of winning the top prize of $100.

Good thing we have a lift, clean and place rule for the bunkers - wouldn't want to hit this mess.
