Pastor's Meditation

Dear Family at St. Paul,

What a fantastic Lent we've had! What a fantastic Holy Week we had. What a fantastic Easter we will celebrate! Some of these things haven't even happened yet, Pastor, how can you say that it will all be great? Well, I'm glad you asked! All I know is that this year's Lent, Holy Week, and Easter are all going to be fantastic because it beats the heck out of last year's Lent, Holy Week, and Easter because they essentially didn't happen due to COVID. This year, however, is an altogether different story.

It seems to me that with vaccinations being administered, stimulus checks being delivered, and businesses re-opening to full capacity, that we are well on our way to getting back to our lives we once knew....St. Paul included! We have started using the common cup in the Lord's Supper again, and removed our roped off pews and social distancing colored markers on the center aisle. It's wonderful to get back to life without boundaries and in full trust in our Lord and His good gifts!

We began last month with our Italian Bistro fellowship dinner and auction and it was a huge success! We were able to raise quite a bit of money from the auction to be given away to 2 seminarians, and also some money has been set aside for the north campus development in the future.

We also started a new multi-generational Bible study called Bible

101 and we have had as many as 30 in Bible study since we started. What an amazing thing to see! I love seeing moms and dads and their children studying the Bible together. This is what God smiles at when He sees this happening in our busy world today. We have concluded our book study on Has American Christianity Failed in the Monday night Bible class, and we will be starting on the book of Genesis on Monday, April 19.

Another couple of exciting events that happened as of late was the Holy Baptism of Joyce Townes (Feb. 21) and the confirmation of her sisters Irene & Esther Townes on Palm Sunday, March 28. It’s wonderful to see the blessings of God happening in the lives of our young people! God is good!

At this point Vacation Bible School is a go for sometime this summer (TBD). (Volunteers needed, hint...hint...)

Kevin Copeland and I will be attending the Texas District Convention this summer June 10-12 in San Marcos, TX. I have been asked to serve on Floor Committee #2 dealing with Governance and Administration. I have also been nominated for election to the Board for Mission Administration in the Texas District. So, we will see what the outcome of that will be this June!

It’s nice to see the gradual progression of life and how through it all, even after a year of isolation and quarantine and social distancing, we are getting our lives back. We are also seeing an increase in the number of visitors to St. Paul over the last couple of months. Hopefully, God will continue to send more young people looking for solid truth in this world in which we live today.

My prayer for St. Paul is the same as it has been for the last 2 ½ years, that God would see fit to smile on St. Paul once more and grant growth, most importantly spiritually, and also physically as well. Will you help me in praying for this as we have now come out of a difficult year and can now recover the momentum that we were experiencing before March of last year. May God grant it to us for Christ’s sake and to Him be all glory, honor, and praise!

In Christ’s Love, +

Pastor Cody

LCMS Stewardship Ministry
Newsletter article – April 2021

Our Father in heaven sent His Son, Jesus, to be our Savior. His atoning sacrifice is the first fruits of all the dead, a pleasing aroma to His Father, so that His perfect life and death count for all who believe in Him. He claimed us as His own children in Holy Baptism. He sustains and strengthens our faith with His Holy Word and His Body and Blood.

As new creatures, who have put on Christ, we bear good fruit. We do the good works prepared for us, which He makes known to us in His Word. By faith then, trusting in the Word of God, we do what he says because He does not lie and always keeps His promises. For “without faith it is impossible to please God, because anyone who comes to him must believe that he exists and that he rewards those who earnestly seek him” (Heb. 11:6).

And so the Lord promises: “Honor the Lord with your wealth and with the first fruits of all your produce; then your barns will be filled with plenty, and your vats will be bursting with wine” (Prov. 3:9-10). How do we honor the Lord with the wealth that God has given us in His generosity? By giving generously to those whom the Lord has called us to love and support your family, your society, and your church. And His promise is that, in so doing, you will never lack.

A common counterpoint is: “But that’s from the Old Testament!” Our Lord Jesus Himself gives us similar promises in the New Testament. He says, at the conclusion of the parable of the talents: “For to everyone who has will more be given, and he will have an abundance” (Matt. 25:29).

And then at the end of the parable of the dishonest manager, he says: “One who is faithful in a very little is also faithful in much, and one who is dishonest in a very little is also dishonest in much. If then you have not been faithful in the unrighteous wealth, who will entrust to you the true riches? And if you have not been faithful in that which is another’s, who will give you that which is your own? No servant can serve two masters, for either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and money” (Luke 16:10–13).

And in His sermon on the mount, he says: “Do not lay up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust destroy and where thieves break in and steal, but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust destroys and where thieves do not break in and steal. For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also” (Matt. 6:19–21).

We have become conditioned against these promises because of their misuse by the peddlers of the prosperity gospel – the guys on TV who say you get rich by putting God in your debt. And thus, we miss out on the fact that God does reward temporal faithfulness in temporal matters with temporal blessings. It’s no quid pro quo. It’s all from God’s grace, and His fatherly divine goodness, and mercy. But those Bible passages do in fact say what they say! It’s not the Old Testament’s problem. It’s ours. It is almost as if we have become so jaded against this that we think it a virtue to be stingy with our offerings.

But our Father in heaven still loves to bless those who bless others. He loves to give to those who give freely and generously. In fact, he challenges us to challenge Him: “Bring the full tithe into the storehouse, that there may be food in my house. And thereby put me to the test, says the Lord of hosts, if I will not open the windows of heaven for you and pour down for you a blessing until there is no more need” (Mal. 3:10).

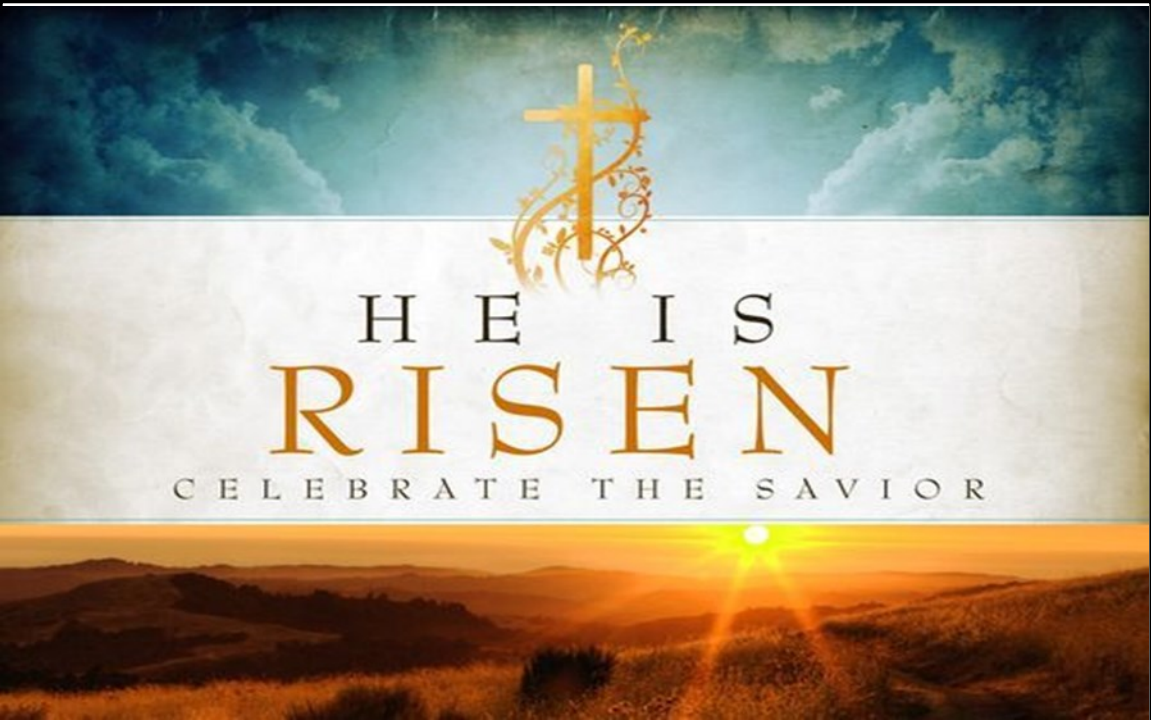

And so, while we don’t give so that we would get, we do receive from the Lord in order to give, and He will bless your giving with more receiving. As St. Paul wrote in Rom. 8:32: “He who did not spare his own Son but gave him up for us all, how will he not also with him graciously give us all things?” (From <https://blogs.lcms.org/>)

Adult Education

The Adult Bible Class meets every Sunday morning before Divine Service. Our goal is to have 40 people in Adult Bible Study. We want to come together and study God’s Word, and reap the benefits that God promises to those who remain in His Word (John 8:31-32). We are now doing a Multi-Generational Bible Study for all ages called “Bible 101– Getting Back to Basics”. I think that you will find this class interesting and thought-provoking. Please plan on joining us each Sunday morning at 9:00 a.m. in the Fellowship Hall.

Because of the continued interest in the Adult Catechism Classes, Pastor Cody is teaching Continuous Adult Catechism Instruction to study together what it is that Lutherans believe, teach, and confess. This class meets weekly on Monday nights at 7:00 p.m. Those wanting to become members of St. Paul can join the class at any time, and once through the series of lessons, they can be confirmed into communicant membership of the church. If you are interested in taking this class, please come out and join us! On April 19, we will begin a new study of the zBook of Genesis! We will start at the very beginning as it is a very good place to start! Come join us..... You’ll love it!

Sunday school for all ages starts at 9:00AM each Sunday morning. The Scriptures are clear, “Train up a child in the way he should go: and when he is old, he will not depart from it.” (Prov. 22:6). Come out and bring the kids to “Bible 101– Getting back to Basics”. Help demonstrating to them, good Bible Study habits as the spiritual leaders of your homes! See y’all there!

Join us for Easter Services on Sunday, April 4, 2021! We will have a Sunrise Service and a Festival of Hymns Service with Easter breakfast between the services.
