Pastor's Meditation

*Where is the Holy Spirit?
 The Holy Spirit is Heard, not Felt*

In light of Pentecost rapidly approaching and our emphasis in the church on the Holy Spirit of God, and a serious lack of attention being given to the Holy Spirit—the Third Person of the God-head, I thought I would dedicate this article to Him.

I heard of persons who have visited Missouri Synod Lutheran church services a few times and left thinking to themselves, "I just didn't feel the Holy Spirit there." I wasn't charged up or emotionally moved by the preaching or the music. Sure, the Gospel was preached; I heard about Jesus and the forgiveness of sins, but I was used to the praise service of the non-Denominational church and the emotional appeals made by Baptists. These Lutherans seemed...well, dry, and I was sure that the Holy Spirit wasn't there, or at least, if He was, He was being stifled by the liturgy and the formal worship. Well, friends in Christ, those visitors were wrong!

They misunderstood the work of the Spirit. How does a person know where the Holy Spirit is? You see these people were using their emotions, their feelings, as the indicator of God the Holy Spirit's presence. Goose bumps down their spine or a pit in their stomach, these were the ways to determine the whereabouts of the Holy Spirit. But the Holy Spirit is not felt, He is heard. The Holy Spirit does not come to tickle us, He comes to talk to us.

Our Lord Jesus says of the Spirit:

When He, the Spirit of truth, has come, He will guide you into all truth; for He will not speak on His own authority, but whatever He hears He will speak... [St John 16:13]

And so, the Spirit comes to us, teaching, speaking, preaching. The Holy Spirit is invisible, but He is not silent, He speaks through the Word of God, the Scriptures, convicting us of sin and comforting us with the Gospel of Jesus crucified.

The Holy Spirit is always connected and bound to the Word of God, and St Paul says: Take up the sword of the Spirit, which is the Word of God. [Ephesians 6:17]

So how do you know where the Holy Spirit is? How do you find Him? We listen. Listen for the Word of God, listen for the Holy Scriptures, listen for the comforting Gospel message that Jesus has died for you, forgiven you, opened heaven for you. Listen for the preaching of Law and Gospel, and there you will find the Holy Spirit bound to the very Word of God.

The Holy Spirit is also connected to the Sacraments of the Church. St. Peter says in Acts 2:38-39, "Repent and be baptized, every one of you, in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins. And you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit." The Small Catechism of Dr. Martin Luther also says in the explanation of the Third Article of the Creed, "I believe that I cannot by my own reason or strength believe in Jesus Christ, my Lord, or come to Him, but the Holy Spirit has called me by the Gospel and enlightened me with His gifts (Sacraments) and keeps me in the true faith." Where you see the Sacraments, there also you will see the Holy Spirit of God working forgiveness, life, and salvation in the lives of God's people.

And the next time someone tells you, "I just didn't feel the Holy Spirit in church." Respond, "You might not have felt Him, but did you hear Him?" "You might not have felt Him, but did you receive Him?" Was the Bible read? Was the Gospel preached? Were your sins proclaimed forgiven by the pastor? Were the Sacraments given out according to Christ's command? Then take comfort. You can be absolutely sure that the Holy Spirit was there, with Jesus and the Father, giving out all the gifts of heaven, to you. To Him be the glory forever! Amen!

In Christ's Love, +

Pastor Cody
Psalm 84:10

Rathgeber Hospitality House

The Home with a Heart

Donations for Rathgeber House are taken on the 2nd Sunday of each month. However, you can donate to this great resource in our community any time. For every $50 donated to Rathgeber House from our church, our church is recognized on a display in their lobby. If we donate $250, we have our name displayed for seven days! What a way to show our love for our community!

Dear St. Paul Family,

Please utilize these offerings to make any needed repairs to our gifted piano, given in loving memory of Norma Flick (to include tuning and key repairs). Mother loved music and her church. What a wonderful tribute you have allowed us to provide.

Stewardship Minute

St. Paul teaches us: “Let the one who is taught the word share all good things with the one who teaches” (Gal. 6:6). And again, he says: “Do you not know that those who are employed in the temple service get their food from the temple, and those who serve at the altar share in the sacrificial offerings? In the same way, the Lord commanded that those who proclaim the gospel should get their living by the gospel” (1 Cor. 9:13–14). In other words, ministers of the Gospel are supported by the offerings of those who are served by them.

And this is how the church lives even now. It is standard practice. But this deserves closer examination. For it instructs us not just that we are to give but also what we are to give. And it does so with four little words: “In the same way ...”

St. Paul is building his case for supporting the preachers of the Gospel with the sacrificial giving of individual members on the example of the Old Testament people who supported the Levites with their offerings and sacrifices. We’re to support the Gospel ministry “in the same way.” But how did the Old Testament people support the Levites?

Moses records this: “You shall tithe all the yield of your seed that comes from the field year by year. And before the Lord your God, in the place that he will choose, to make his name dwell there, you shall eat the tithe of your grain, of your wine, and of your oil, and the firstborn of your herd and flock, that you may learn to fear the Lord your God always” (Deut. 14:22–23). The Levites were supported by the tithe, 10 percent of all the yearly yield of that which was harvested.

Does that seem like a lot? Does it surprise you that St. Paul instructs us that we are to support the New Testament Gospel ministry “in the same way?” If it does, ask yourself: Is the church’s job in the New Testament bigger or smaller than the Levites’ job in the Old Testament? Back then, there was one Temple, and the ministry was almost exclusively located in one nation among the descendants of Abraham. In Matthew 28, Jesus calls us to teach and baptize all nations, and there are churches and ministries all around the world! How could we support this new Gospel ministry with anything less than the Israelites supported the Old Testament ministry?

Of course, we are free to give more, for we have received more than those in the Old Testament. We have received the fullness of God’s revelation, the fullness of His salvation, and the fulfillment of everything that God promised to do. For we have received Christ, God’s own Son, in the flesh, who took upon himself our sins and in exchange gave us his righteousness. The Father claimed us as his own in Holy Baptism. He gathers us together in the place where his name dwells to feast on the first fruits of the resurrection, the risen and living body and blood of His Son – our Lord Jesus. He reminds us that we are His, that all things are ours because we belong to Him. He blesses us here in time with physical and spiritual gifts.

In the same way – and in response to His fatherly divine goodness and mercy – we gladly give to those who proclaim to us “the excellencies of him who called us out of darkness and into his marvelous light.” For once we were not a people, but now we are God’s people; once we had not received mercy, but now we have indeed (1 Peter 2:9–10).

Adult Education

The Adult Bible Class meets every Sunday morning before Divine Service. Our goal is to have 40 people in Adult Bible Study. We want to come together and study God’s Word, and reap the benefits that God promises to those who remain in His Word (John 8:31-32). We are now doing a Multi-Generational Bible Study for all ages called “Bible 101– Getting Back to Basics”. I think that you will find this class interesting and thought-provoking. Please plan on joining us each Sunday morning at 9:00 a.m. in the Fellowship Hall.

Because of the continued interest in the Adult Catechism Classes, Pastor Cody is teaching Continuous Adult Catechism Instruction to study together what it is that Lutherans believe, teach, and confess. This class meets weekly on Monday nights at 6:00 p.m. Those wanting to become members of St. Paul can join the class at any time, and once through the series of lessons, they can be confirmed into communicant membership of the church. If you are interested in taking this class, please come out and join us! We continue our study of the Book of Genesis! We will start at the very beginning as it is a very good place to start! Come join us..... You’ll love it!

Sunday school for all ages starts at 9:00AM each Sunday morning. The Scriptures are clear, “Train up a child in the way he should go: and when he is old, he will not depart from it.” (Prov. 22:6). Come out and bring the kids to “Bible 101– Getting back to Basics”. Help demonstrating to them, good Bible Study habits as the spiritual leaders of your homes! See y’all there!

Graduation Reception

We will have a graduation reception in the Fellowship hall following worship service on May 23 to honor our graduates, Brett Farson and Clara Buckmaster.

Always the Cross

My children, when young, were the typical squirmy kids who found it difficult to sit still in church on Sunday. As with many churches, many well-meaning matriarchs of the church offered unsolicited advice to young families.

Noticing my distressful attempt to keep three youngsters under control, I was told to try sitting up front one Sunday. That way the kids would know that everyone could see them and behave better, or so they said. My toddler son simply turned around to find an attentive audience, so he started waving and yelling “hi” to everyone. He was not disappointed when he got a giggling reaction from the congregation.

Since that was a noticeable flop, another woman suggested giving each of my children pen and paper. “Tell them to draw a picture about the pastor’s message, that way they will sit and listen attentively for something to draw on their paper.” After explaining this to them, we were set to try it (from the back of church again). As the pastor began his sermon, they promptly drew a picture of a cross on the paper and declared they were done before he spoke two whole minutes. They weren’t great artists but, even as youngsters, they knew that the pastor always talks about the cross on which Christ suffered and died for their sins and ours, too.

It is good to know I have a church home that always ties every message to the cross. My children grew up knowing about God’s love and forgiveness. We tried to follow the words of Solomon, Train up a child in the way he should go; even when he is old he will not depart from it (Proverbs 22:6). As adults, I am glad to say all my children are church members and my grandchildren attend regularly too. Hopefully, their wiggly youngsters will also grow up boasting in the cross of Jesus Christ, as St. Paul did when he wrote, But far be it from me to boast except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world (Galatians 6:14).

Prayer: Dear Lord, make the cross my constant focus. Whatever I do, and wherever I go, may I always boast in the work of Jesus who sacrificed Himself for me on the cross. In Christ’s name, Lord, hear my prayer. Amen
